PLAN TO CONTINUE THAW'S LEGAL FIGHT

Newly Retained Counsel Prepare for Battle in New Hampshire.

MORE TALK OF EXTRADITION

Fugitive's Attorneys Hope to Have a Personal Hearing Before Governor Felker—May Carry Matter to Supreme Court.

Colebrook, N. H., Sept. 12.—The protracted court battle denied Harry K. Thaw in Canada by his sudden deportation on Wednesday promises to be waged in New Hampshire. His newly-retained counsel hope to have a personal hearing before Governor Felker on the matter of extradition, and should extradition be granted they will carry the matter to the State Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus. Three of these attorneys—N. E. Martin, of Concord; Willard H. Olmstead, of New York, and Merrill Shurtleff, of Colebrook, hurried to the capital today.

Sheriff Hornbeck, of Dutchess county, New York, wherein is located the Matteawan asylum from which Thaw escaped, was en route here tonight with the requisition warrant signed by Acting Governor Glynn. As the document must first be laid before Governor Felker the New York lawyers were chagrined at the sheriff's mistake in heading for Colebrook. Upon his arrival he or some other representative of the State will be hurried to Concord. Wednesday next, according to Thaw's lawyers, they expect to have their hearing before Governor Felker. They estimate that three days will elapse before he can render a decision. If this is adverse they will apply at once for a writ of habeas corpus. Argument on this would likely be postponed for another week.

This would mean days of weary waiting unless William Travers Jerome can engineer some coup. He has in mind now a plan to seize the fugitive in case his deportation is ordered, and block efficiency of the habeas corpus writ by concealing from the Thaw counsel the identity of the individual to whom Thaw would be given in charge. The writ would have to be directed against the prisoner's custodian at the time, and if Jerome could work quickly enough and with sufficient secrecy his plan might be successful.

Thaw was not brought into court in Colebrook today. It is probable that on Monday he will be taken to the capital preparatory to the arguments for and against surrendering him to New York. The chief argument of his lawyers will be that New York seeks his extradition on a charge of conspiracy—a charge which they contend New York never intends to try him on. They will contend that extradition in such circumstances is a subterfuge, and that there are precedents to sustain them in this.

Thaw left his hotel but once today, to go to the barber shop. The sheriff and ten special guards accompanied him. Rumors of kidnapping would not down. The citizen of Coaticook, Quebec, who was denounced yesterday by Jerome as the leader of the anti-Jerome movement which resulted in his arrest on a charge of gambling, remained in Colebrook today in spite of the ill feeling his presence has engendered. He whizzed around in a motor car a good part of the day and this fact prevented Thaw from being taken for an airing this afternoon. The sheriff had agreed to accompany the prisoner on a ride and Thaw and his lawyers were about to climb in the machine when the report spread that two cars bearing Canadians were stationed a half mile or so out of town toward the Canadian frontier. There has been so much feeling shown in the Thaw matter by the Canadians, and so many of them have trailed after him here that Jerome put his foot down on the motor trip at once. Through his detective aid, and John Lanyon, of New York, he immediately impressed the sheriff of the inadvisability of such liberty for the prisoner and Thaw returned, disappointed to his room.

On Monday next, he was to have been produced before the King's bench in Montreal on a writ of habeas corpus. This was rudely upset by his ejection from the Dominion, under orders from the minister of justice, but the writ will come up for argument nevertheless. It was said that some of Thaw's Canadian adherents were planning to spirit him away to Montreal in the hope that the writ would be sustained. Failing in this, so the story ran, they expected to put him aboard a yacht and eventually get him to Pennsylvania.

Thaw's lawyers denied knowledge of any such plan and repudiated any intention of resorting to "strong arm" work. Mr. Jerome said he was just as anxious to avoid anything irregular in connection with New York State's endeavors.

Thaw himself, it is understood, has refused two offers to aid him in another break for liberty. Apparently he got more than enough liberty of that kind in his wild ride on Wednesday, and he now places his hope in the courts. It was reported that he was again trying to dominate his lawyers. This they denied. Ex-Governor William A. Stone, of Pennsylvania, came today personally to represent the Thaw family, and with his coming the lawyers here unused to Harry's ways and moods seemed to breathe easier.

Governor Will Grant Hearing.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 12.—Harry K. Thaw will make his fight for liberty in this city. Governor Felker will grant a hearing some day next week, probably Wednesday, on the demand of Acting Governor Glynn, of New York, that Thaw be extradited.

This was learned tonight informally, the Governor having as yet received no word of the matter officially. He plans to go to his home tomorrow morning for the week-end, but intimated tonight that if Sheriff Hornbeck, of Dutchess county, New York, was likely to arrive here during the forenoon, he would wait and receive the requisition warrant.

Three of Thaw's attorneys were here tonight, and it was reported that Judge William M. Chase, formerly on the Supreme bench of the State, would be retained as the leading New Hampshire lawyer in Thaw's interests. The three lawyers who are here, N. E. Martin, of this city, W. H. Olmstead, of New York, and Merrill Shurtleff, of Colebrook, spent the evening in conference among themselves. They made no effort to see the Governor.

Morgan & Co., on the flotation of $67,522,000 bonds. Ex-Senator Bulkley has been in Boston for the purpose of fighting any attempt to turn the issue of bonds over to the Morgans, who have said they would no longer act as fiscal agents for the road.

GODWIN NAMES POSTMASTERS

Recommends Powell at Whiteville; Pleasants at Rowland; Nicholson at Maxton—Is First to Name Them Ahead.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 12.—Representative Godwin today forwarded to the Postoffice Department recommendations for the appointment of three postmasters in his district where the terms of the incumbents do not expire for several months. They are A. Elmo Powell, at Whiteville; V. G. Pleasants, at Rowland, and O. C. Nicholson at Maxton.

Mr. Godwin said that the patrons of the offices have practically unanimously agreed upon the choice of the men he named today and he believed to name them at once and have the matter settled will benefit the communities.

While several members of the delegation have signified their intention to name postmasters ahead of time, and confine the political activities of the district next Spring to the Congressional contests, Godwin is the first to actually name postmasters.

J. M. Oldham, of Charlotte; Rufus S. Stedman, of Winston-Salem; ex-Sheriff S. W. Andrews, of Chapel Hill, and Sheriff W. D. McLaurin, of Laurinburg, are here. G. H. M.

Tar Heel Shippers Win Petition.

The petition of the Corporation Commission of North Carolina to intervene in behalf of a large number of North Carolina shippers who have complained to the Inter-State Commerce Commission of alleged discriminatory rates on furniture, was today granted by the commission.

This is the case in which the High Point furniture dealers filed complaint some time ago and were later joined by about a hundred other shippers all over the State, principally at Greensboro, Charlotte, Thomasville, Winston-Salem and Asheville. Upon this case, able authorities have stated, the whole situation with regard to rate discrimination against North Carolina hinges.

Chairman Travis on Hand.

Today's action may possibly explain the presence here for the past few days of Corporation Commissioner Travis, who has maintained a marked reticence in regard to his visit.

The Southern Railway, Seaboard Air Line, and Merchants' and Miners' Company today filed briefs with the commission in reply to the complaint of the Foreman Shoe Company, of Charlotte, which alleged discriminatory rates over those roads from Boston to North Carolina points in favor of Lynchburg, Va. Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Blanch W. Locke, widow of the late William H. Locke, today became a part owner of the Philadelphia National League baseball club, of which her husband was president at the time of his death, August 14th.

TO AID AMERICANS IN LEAVING MEXICO

House Passes Resolution to Make Appropriation for Relief of Refugees.

BRYAN CHAMPIONS THE MOVE

Appropriation of $100,000 Will be Expended to Assist Americans in Trouble Zones, in Addition to Other Funds.

Washington, Sept. 12.—In response to an urgent demand from the State Department, the House tonight passed a joint resolution making an emergency appropriation of $100,000 to be used for the relief of destitute Americans in Mexico, and for their transportation to the United States.

Majority Leader Underwood presented the emergency resolution, and read a letter from Secretary Bryan asking immediate action. The Secretary said the department was using $2,000 a day to aid Americans in Mexico and that but $12,000 was available for that purpose. The resolution probably will be passed Monday by the Senate.

Secretary Bryan wrote Mr. Underwood:

"In view of the fact that the deficiency bill is still pending in the Committee on Appropriations for the Senate, and will not become a law until after the available appropriations have been exhausted, it is essential that there should be placed at the department's disposal at once, a sufficient sum to enable it to carry on the work of relief and prevent the hardship and dissatisfaction that a discontinuance of that work would entail. Besides, the obligations resting on this government under existing conditions of effecting a safe and speedy means by which Americans may leave Mexico and reach their homes in the United States, there are political reasons which render it of the highest importance that the work which is being carried on there should not be brought to a sudden stop."

The resolution passed unanimously, with the understanding that if further funds were needed the $100,000 appropriation in the Urgent Deficiency bill for the same purpose would be allowed to stand.

Refugees Reach New York.

New York, Sept. 12.—Sixteen American refugees from Mexico reached here on the steamer Esperanza which arrived tonight from Mexican ports by way of Havana. Harry Boiliner, of Elizabeth, N. J., one of the party, said the Mexican government was doing everything possible to protect Americans and their property. He and the majority of his fellow passengers, he declared, left Mexico more for a "vacation" than because of fear of injury to themselves or their property.

Mexico's Currency Situation.

Washington, Sept. 12—Consul Simpsich, at Ensenada, reported to the State Department that none of the fiat money issued by the Governor of Sonora had been forced upon foreigners, and the circulation of the 200,000 pesos already printed had been suspended until after September 16th. The consul says a total of 2,000,000 pesos in ten series of 200,000 pesos each is contemplated. The arrival of Dr. Ryan at Torreon with medical and other supplies was reported to the department, and conditions there are said not to be so bad as had been anticipated. Several Americans had been imprisoned and subsequently released.

Rosales Aboard Steamer Mexico.

Vera Cruz, Sept. 12.—On board the Ward Line steamer Mexico, which sailed yesterday for Tampico, Havana and New York, was the constitutional Governor of the State of Hidalgo, Pedro Rosales. Senor Rosales had been summoned to Mexico City, and told to ask for leave of absence in order that he might be substituted by a military governor. He said he explained to Puerta that he had been legally elected to office and asked time to think over the proposition made to him. He is one of the richest men in his State.

The fact that Senor Rosales had come to Vera Cruz from the capital and taken passage on the steamer did not become known until today. While here he told an intimate friend he was not a revolutionist, but feared he might be forced into the rebel ranks. He also said that the Mexican government in his opinion would be financially embarrassed as soon as the recent 12,000,000 pesos loan is exhausted.

Poordes Mangel, a member of the chamber of deputies, who was reported to have been killed by Federal soldiers last month near Atzcapatolco, is said to be in Vera Cruz in hiding awaiting an opportunity to escape to Havana. Mangel was a warm personal friend of the late President Madero.

EPIDEMIC OF COUNTERFEITING.

United States Secret Service Men Redoubling Efforts to Catch Them.

Washington, Sept. 12. — There seems to be an epidemic of counterfeits and the United States secret service has redoubled its efforts to catch offenders. Following an announcement a few days ago, after the discovery of three new counterfeit National bank notes, Acting Chief W. H. Moran today warned the public of a new counterfeit $5 United States note. It is photographic re-production on paper of fair quality. The treasury seal has been lightly touched with pink ink, and a slight attempt has been made to apply green coloring matter to the back of the bill.

687 presents will be given away during Big Fall Sale, Sept. 12th to Sept. 20th. Gaylord-Platt Co.—Advertisement.

ENGLAND HONORS DEAD MAYOR

Body of William Jay Gaynor Lay in State Last Night in Town Hall of Liverpool—An Unprecedented Honor.

Liverpool, Sept. 12.—The body of William Jay Gaynor tonight lay in state at the foot of the Grand Stairway of the town hall of Liverpool.

It was an unprecedented honor that Liverpool paid the dead executive of the American metropolis, for never before had any one lain in state in the historic edifice. Covered with the stars and stripes, and with the British union jack draped over its foot the casket rested on a catafalque brought here from Westminster Abbey and on which has reposed the bodies of many of England's most famous men. It was last used at the funeral of Field Marshal Lord Woolseley in St. Paul's Cathedral last March.

Candles in the great golden candelabra from Westminster Abbey cast a subdued light up the wide stairway, and over the detail of picked men from the Liverpool police force who stood guard all night about the catafalque. John Sutherland Harmood-Banner, Lord Mayor of the city, who is absent on vacation, had telegraphed the city officials to do everything in their power in honor of the dead Mayor of New York, and they carried out their instructions in minute detail.

When the steamer Baltic on board which Mayor Gaynor died at sea last Wednesday, docked at 8:30 o'clock this evening the landing stage was cleared of all persons except the holders of tickets. A great crowd had assembled outside the dock gates. As soon as the gang plank was run out Horace L. Washington, the United States consul, accompanied by a delegation from the White Star Line, went aboard the ship.

In the salon Mr. Washington met Rufus Gaynor, son of Mayor Gaynor, and expressed condolences on behalf of himself and the Lord Mayor of Liverpool.

Mr. Gaynor readily assented to the plans of the Liverpool civic authorities for the lying-in-state of his father. Acting on the request of Mr. Washington, the port authorities waived the formalities usual in the landing of the dead from vessels, and the body of Mayor Gaynor, in a plain wood coffin covered by an American flag, was brought ashore as soon as the first-class passengers had left the Baltic.

The coffin was taken in charge by a London undertaker, sent to Liverpool by the American embassy and placed in a hearse drawn by four horses, which was followed by the Lord-Mayor's carriage occupied by Rufus Gaynor and Consul Washington. The funeral cortege, escorted by a squad of mounted police, made its way through a dense crowd of quiet people, who uncovered as the hearse passed to the town hall. The hearse was followed on foot by a woman in deep black, who had by her side a little girl. The woman declines to give her name, but said she was a friend of Mayor Gaynor's family.

The secretary of the Lord-Mayor, assisted by a delegation of civic dignitaries, received the body at the town hall. When the coffin was placed on the catafalque, one end of it was covered by a beautiful wreath of lilies of the valley bearing the inscription, "Deepest sympathy from the Lord-Mayor and Citizens of Liverpool."

Another wreath, composed of Easter lilies, bore a card inscribed, "The Condolences of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lee Washington."

The hall where the body lay was then cleared and Rufus Gaynor was left alone for a few minutes with his dead father. Afterwards Mr. Gaynor was taken to a hotel by Consul Washington.

When Mr. Gaynor had left the building the body was removed from the wood coffin and placed in a massive fumed oak casket. On a brass plate on the cover was the inscription:

"William Jay Gaynor, September, 1913."

Six policemen, who were relieved at intervals stood at attention around the casket all night, and will continue this duty until the body is removed from the town hall the morning of the homeward voyage on the Cunard steamer Lusitania, which a special mortuary chapel has been prepared. Eight uniform quartermasters will form the guard of honor during the voyage.

Rufus Gaynor tonight was on the point of collapse from grief and anxiety, and was unable to give further details concerning the death of his father. He expressed deep gratitude for the honors accorded the late Mayor by the Liverpool civic authorities. Mr. Gaynor was informed by Consul Washington that the Bishop of Liverpool had offered to conduct religious services over the body here, but he declined with thanks, saying his mother had expressed a wish that no ser-

WATSON DENIES THE MULHALL CHARGES

Declares He Was Never Employed By Manufacturers' Association.

NEVER A "LOBBYIST" HE SAYS

Was the "Whip" in the House and "Never Knew a Corrupt Man in the House" Declares Former Congressman.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Former Representative James E. Watson, of Indiana, before the House Lobby committee today made a general denial of Martin M. Mulhall's general charge that he was one of the active friends of the National Association of Manufacturers in Congress during many years.

"At no time while I was in Congress, or after I left Congress," said Watson, "was I in the employ of the National Association of Manufacturers for any purpose, nor was I at any time a lobbyist or a lawyer for it."

Watson said he did work for the National Tariff Commission Association, an organization of several hundred associations, and many individuals of which the National Association of Manufacturers was one.

"You don't need to tell the sun to shine; you don't need to tell the birds to sing, any more than you needed to tell Uncle Joe Cannon who to appoint on committees," said he. "The committees were made up by Mr. Cannon, Busby his secretary, and Asher Hinds, the House parliamentarian, and I never obtruded my opinions."

Watson said he was never approached by any National Association of Manufacturers official to favor any legislation, and never was interested particularly in any bills they favored, except an anti-injunction bill, and the proposed exemption of labor unions from the operation of the Sherman law. He said he held the same views as the association on those measures.

Watson explained Mulhall expected to assist him in his campaign for Governor in 1908, but worked only a few months and did not make his promises good. He denied that Mulhall helped raise $22,000 in that campaign. His employment by the tariff association was about April 1st, 1909, nearly a month after he left Congress. He said he was in charge of the campaign for a tariff commission while the Payne bill was in the House and later in the Senate.

"There was nothing secret or insidious about my employment," said he. "I was not in Congress, and I thought I had a right to that employment. I received $250 a week and my expenses, and probably a retainer of $500. There may have been some talk of a contingent fee, but it must have been among the officers, I never heard anything about it."

"While I was whip of the House for six years," declared Watson pounding on the table in front of him, "I was intimately acquainted with almost every member, and I never knew a corrupt man in the House."

When questioned about lectures for the manufacturers, or allied organizations, Watson diverted to take a shot at Secretary Bryan.

"He is the John D. Rockefeller of the chautauqua platform," said Watson. "He has made more money out of it than anybody else and he had made more money because he has gone about abusing the other fellows for making money."

Watson disclaimed any knowledge of the "black list" of six Congressmen Mulhall said he had written. He said the six names were in his handwriting, but he had not the slightest idea why he had written them.

Sunday will be observed as "Patriotic Day." Ministers selected from among the veterans present will occupy the pulpits of the city. A patriotic mass meeting will be held Sunday evening in the G. A. R. auditorium.

The city is elaborately decorated with United States flags and brilliant electrical illuminations. Preparations have been made to accommodate 75,000 to 100,000 visitors. Many veterans have already arrived.

H. K. Thaw's Kidnapper

E. BLAKE ROBERTSON.

Acting Superintendent of Immigration, who with four other Canadian officials, "kidnapped" Harry K. Thaw from his quarters in Coaticook jail, Quebec, and rushed him across the border into Vermont, where he was turned loose, with neither friend nor foe to aid or injure. The "kidnapping" as Thaw called it—for that is what it really was—was nevertheless a legal process, warranted by the authority of Minister of Justice, C. J. Doherty. Thaw's lawyers, however, declare that they will have Robertson arrested for contempt of court on the contention that the arrest disobeyed the Superior Court writ calling for Thaw's production in Montreal.

RAPID WORK ON TARIFF BILL

Earthenware and Glassware Schedules Approved With Slight Changes—Other Issues Discussed by Conferees.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Democratic conferees of the Senate and the House made rapid progress today on the tariff bill, approving earthenware and glassware schedules with slight changes; the sugar schedule with its free sugar provision and the date for the new rates extended to March 1st, 1914; the tobacco schedule, the wood schedule and all the agricultural schedules, with the exception of the proposed banana tax, and the countervailing duty on wheat.

In the metal schedule the conferees struck the first snag, and after several hours' discussion the entire matter was passed over to be taken up later. Majority Leader Underwood and the other House conferees insisted that the Senate should recede from its action in placing ferro manganese, pig iron, steel ingots, slabs and blooms on the free list. They contended that too much revenue is sacrificed, and there is a growing opinion that the Senate conferees eventually will agree to small revenue duties on these articles.

Contrary to the general expectation, little difficulty was encountered in the agricultural schedule, the House conferees agreeing quickly to free cattle. The dispute on the countervailing duty on wheat is yet to be settled.

As to the banana tax it is generally known that the President wishes it stricken out. This would mean a loss in revenue approximately $2,50.

In all of the schedules slight changes were made, the Senate receding from amendments where decreases in rates were made. This policy, it is said, will be maintained throughout the conference, Mr. Underwood insisting that too much revenue has been cut out of the bill.

In the liquor schedule the general rates were approved, but action on the proposal to put the full internal revenue tax on brandies used in fortifying sweet wines, was deferred. In the earthenware schedule the Senate receded from some of its amendments increasing the rates on higher grades of mica.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

Whereabouts of Representative T. D. Sullivan Still Unknown.

New York, Sept. 12.—Representative Timothy D. Sullivan, who disappeared from his brother's home at Williams Bridge, September 1st, still was missing today. Reports that he was in a sanitarium at Brewster, N. Y., under the care of a New York physician were declared by the physician today to be unfounded.

An attorney for the committee which was put in charge of Mr. Sullivan's estates when he was adjudged incompetent certified today that the former political leader was on the verge of bankruptcy. This statement surprised Mr. Sullivan's friends, most of whom believed he was worth at least a million dollars.

The declaration regarding Sullivan's finances was made when the attorney for his estate appeared before a Supreme Court justice to oppose a motion to compel the payment of a note for $6,500 alleged to have been executed by Sullivan.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 12.—The Austrian steamer Alfa, which went aground on French reef last Wednesday, today was floated and towed to Key West. Damage to the ship is slight.

TRAINMAN KILLED EVERY SEVEN HOURS

According to Statistics Submitted Before Arbitration Commission.

THE STATEMENT CHALLENGED

Railway Employes Demanding More Pay and Shorters Hours—Attempt to Adjust Dispute of Trainmen.

New York, Sept. 12.—"A member of the Brotherhood of Trainmen is killed every seven hours and 15 minutes, and every nine minutes a man is maimed." This was the testimony today of William Lee, representing the Order of Railway Trainmen at the meeting of the Arbitration Commission in the controversy between 42 Eastern railroads and their conductors and trainmen over the employes' demands for more pay and shorter hours.

When this statement was challenged by Elisha Lee, counsel for the railroads, William Lee cited statistics from the Inter-State Commerce Commission's report. This report on June 30th gave 3,625 railroad employes killed in the United States during the year.

A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railroad Conductors, also a witness, complained of what he called the evil of deadhead crews. These crews, he said, were composed of men who have run a loaded train to a given point, have no more work to do, and are not paid for the time they spend in traveling back home. He added that some of the working economies introduced by railroads increased the risk to life and limb encountered by trainmen and said that the trainmen helped pay for such economies in disability funds.

Frank J. Warren, professor of economics at the University of Pennsylvania, was a witness for the trainmen at the afternoon session. By means of statistics he tried to show that railroads have steadily abandoned old cars of light tonnage for the heavier cars. The discussion of tonnages, the train men said, was introduced to prove that a train today can carry more freight than a train of the same size ten years ago, and that one crew can run a train that formerly would have required more cars, and therefore more men.

BUBONIC PLAGUE.

One Death Reported in California as Result of Dreaded Disease.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 12.—A death from bubonic plague occurred yesterday at Martinez, Cal., according to reports received today by the State board of health from Dr. J. D. Long, of the United States marine hospital service in San Francisco. At the same time a message was received by the board from its secretary, Dr. W. F. Snow, now in Washington, D. C., stating that the Federal government had decided to appropriate $40,000 additional to fight the disease.

The body of the Martinez victim whose name has been withheld, was examined by Dr. D. H. Curry, of the Federal laboratory service in San Francisco.

Dr. Long personally passed upon the examination before pronouncing the case one of plague.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—The plague first made its apearance in San Francisco prior to the earthquake and fire. It was stamped out after many months by the Federal health authorities who subjected the Chinatown and slums district of San Francisco to a thorough cleaning up.

It having developed that rats were the principal medium of the contagion's spread, the government first turned its attention to ridding this city of the rodents, and then began a systematic campaign against the "rat's country cousin" the common ground squirrel, which was found to be infested in portions of the State. This warfare has never been abated in the districts where plague has made its appearance among the squirrels. Hundreds of thousands of the little animals have been slain. Bubonic plague has never obtained a real foothold in this country, according to the government experts, and is never likely to, owing to the difference between the American mode of living and conditions in Oriental countries, whence it comes. All of the cases reported on this coast have been among Orientals, or directly traceable to contact with them.

TO ASK INVESTIGATION.

Of the Mailing Departments of All Federal Prisons.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Investigation by the Department of Justice of the mailing department of Federal prisons will be asked by Charles F. Dewoody, superintendent of the department in Chicago, as a result of disclosures made before Federal Judge Landis by L. C. Silver and Hyman Epstein, prisoners in Fort Leavenworth penitentiary in 1912.

The two men were sent to prison by Judge Landis for perjury and subordination of perjury in a bankruptcy case. Yesterday Epstein appeared before Judge Landis and asked to be readmitted to practice in the Federal courts, basing his request on a statement that Silver's testimony, which had resulted in the lawyer's conviction, had been perjured. Questioning of Epstein revealed that he had obtained his information from letters which Silver had written his wife from the penitentiary.

Epstein said he was in the mailing department of the prison, and it was an easy matter for any employe to read any letter written by a prisoner.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 12.—The battleship Nebraska, on board which a boiler-head blew out yesterday, has been ordered to Boston for repairs.

ATHLETICS START VICTORY WHEN J. BENZ WEAKENED

Athletics Used Four Twirlers, Including Veteran Eddie Plank.

GRIFFMEN AGAIN VICTORS

World Champions at Big End of Another Marathan at Boston—Yankees Made It Three Out of Four.

Benz, of the White Sox, weakened in yesterday's game after pitching six perfectly good innings, and Red Russell, who succeeded him, was hit hard, and the Athletics won the second straight game by a 7 to 5 score. Edward Plank started for the Mackmen, but was ejected in the first inning, being succeeded by Pennock, Houck and Bush.

The Washington Senators took their fifth straight game within the last four days from the Cleveland clan of Joe Birmingham, and climbed to within one game of Cleveland in the second place fight. Walter Johnson, who opened the series with a victory over the Naps last Tuesday, again did manful service, yielding but four hits, fanning seven batsmen and issuing one pass. Clyde Milan, of the Nationals got four hits in four trials.

The Boston Red Sox were at the big end of another scoring and batting bee yesterday, piling up 18 runs, 21 hits and 30 bases, while Detroit was credited with five circuits.

Frank Chance's New York Yankees made it three out of four from St. Louis by a score of 10 to 3 in a pitchers' battle between Ray Caldwell and Baumgardner. In the sixth inning, with the score tied, the latter weakened and the Yankees scored four runs.

Athletics Again.

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—After pitching fine ball for six inningse, Benz weakened in the seventh session of today's game and his successor Russell was no improvement, Philadelphia defeated Chicago by 7 to 5. Philadelphia used four pitchers. Plank was taken out in the first inning. Pennock was relieved in the third, and Houck in the seventh. Bush twirled the last two innings.

Washington, Sept. 12.—With today's 6 to 1 victory over Cleveland the fifth straight in four days Washington climbed to within one game of Cleveland in the fight for second place in the American League pennant race. It was Johnson's second victory over Cleveland during the series. He allowed but four scattered hits, struck out seven and gave one pass. In the field he accepted six chances perfectly. Milan got four hits in four times at bat. Jot Jackson was hurt while going after one of Milan's doubles to the fence and was replaced by Ryan. His condition is not considered serious.

"Stop The Giants" Is The Slogan

Connie Mack says that the New York Giants are somewhat differently situated than any other two-time champions of recent years. He says "Stop the Giants at all hazards," is the watchword of all the fans in other towns.

"Upsetting the Giants," said Connie, "is looked upon as the highest possible honor, save pennant fame, in the provinces. The fact that New York is striving for its third consecutive championship naturally makes the combined opposition more pronounced than ever before.

"I think I can cite a few examples. Hans Wagner, the wonderful shortstop of the Pirates, has been out of commission several times this season. But he always managed to get into the line-up whenever New York met the Buccaneers. Hans would have come back against us on crutches, if necessary. Other teams so conducted their campaigns as to present the very stiffest opposition to New York.

"We got the toughest pitchers, naturally. It was simply what we expected, and what every champion has a right to expect as a tax on the crown."

"I will venture to say that Connie Mack has experienced the same thing this year. Of course, the Boston Red Sox, a champion of the world, drew chief attention for several weeks until their case was seen to be hopeless.

Owe Success to McGraw.

"I said before that much of the Giants' success had been due to the wisdom and generalship of Manager McGraw. Still, the players deserve great credit, too. The old saying that 'a workman is little better than his tools' goes in baseball. McGraw has some pretty valuable property in the line of players.

"The Giants should be good for three or four more seasons.

"Do you know that I am one of the old veterans? Well, I feel just as if I were starting out on my career. Seriously, we have a wonderful bunch of youth and speed and I do not think that half of our present regulars have yet reached the zenith of their careers. Mathewson is the player now at the height of his vigor and by the way he is traveling he is far from the beginning of a decline.

"I have been asked repeatedly to forecast the result of the world's series. I think I shall wait until we have clinched the pennant before talking along those lines. I will say that I believe our team is much stronger than in 1911 or 1912 and that if we win the pennant we shall give a very good account of ourselves in the big series."

SULZER'S STOCK TRANSACTIONS.

Described Under Oath by the Impeached Governor's Former Banker.

New York, Sept. 12.—Governor Sulzer's transactions in Wall street from June 27th, 1910, until they ceased—at least so far as one firm of brokers was concerned—on July 14th, last, were described under oath today by Melville D. Fuller, who said he was Sulzer's broker, in a hearing held by the nine impeachment managers appointed by the assembly.

Mr. Fuller, who refused to testify before the Frawley Investigating committee concerning certain matters, today answered all questions. He testified that Sulzer had paid him $16,000 in person within a month, and a day after the last election, and that he (Fuller) had had no dealings with Mrs. Sulzer.

According to Fuller's testimony, Sulzer, while a Congressman, opened an account with his firm, Harris & Fuller, June 27th, 1910. In September, he testified, Sulzer borrowed $23,000 from the firm, giving as collateral 400 shares of "Big Four" railroad stock, and in November of the same year Sulzer added some American Smelter stock to his collateral, held by the brokers.

"Big Four" declined from 80 to 57, within a year." Mr. Fuller continued, "But Mr. Sulzer bought some more of the stock, and added Southern Pacific to his holdings."

"On November 13th, 1912, a few days after he was elected Governor," Mr. Fuller continued, "Sulzer walked into the office of Harris & Fuller with ten $1,000 bills in his hand. These he paid on his account, his indebtedness, owing to other transactions, having increased to $50,612.

"On December 6th," Mr. Fuller said, "Governor-elect Sulzer paid in person $6,000 more in cash on his account.

"On June 16th of this year, Sulzer's debt to the brokers had been further reduced. One of the checks," Mr. Fuller said, "was from A. E. Spriggs, a former Governor of Montana."

Lieutenant Commander Josephthal, of Governor Sulzer's staff, visited the office of Harris & Fuller, July 16th, last, Mr. Fuller added, and closed the account by paying the balance, $26,739. Josephthal received the stock left by Sulzer as collateral. Josephthal presented an order, which was produced today. It was signed: "William Sulzer, for Mrs. Sulzer."

Mr. Fuller could give no explanation of the words "For Mrs. Sulzer," he said, as neither he nor his firm had ever had any dealings with her.

EVIDENCE CONCLUDED.

Before Investigators of Strike in West Virginia Coal Mines.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Coal mine operators of the Paint and Cabin Creek, West Virginia fields today concluded the presentation of evidence to the Senate Special Committee investigating the strike in their mines. Monday attorneys for the United Mine Workers will present rebuttal witnesses, and the inquiry is expected to close soon thereafter.

The last day's effort of the operators was to add more testimony on the point that the strike was caused by the United Mine Workers seeking to carry out their part of an unlawful agreement with operators in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, to unionize the West Virginia mines.

D. C. Kennedy, formerly a mine workers' official, but now secretary of the Kanawha Coal Operators' Association, testified as to "outside" operators urging a joint conference with the United Mine Workers, on the necessity of unionizing West Virginia, if higher wages were to be granted. It was brought out that the witness knew of no agreement of this kind.

John Nigent, immigration commissioner of West Virginia, testified he had been defeated by Federal officials in his attempts to get immigrant labor for the mines.

"Commissioner Keefe, of the immigration bureau, told me," the witness said, "that until West Virginia complied with the requirements of the United Mine Workers, the government would not only refuse to assist, but would do all in its power to prevent any miners going to West Virginia.

Giants' Appeal To Be Considered

New York, Sept. 12.—The appeal of the New York National League baseball club from the decision of President Lynch in awarding the game of August 30th to the Phillies will be acted on by the league directors in Cincinnati next Monday or Tuesday. The National Commission meets in Cincinnati Monday and at that time all the clubs will be represented to take a hand in the annual drafting of minor league material. The directors will be present and will act on the New York-Philadelphia dispute in person.

The New York club is represented on the directorate by Cornelius J. Sullivan, but as the New York club is an interested party in the issue Mr. Sullivan will have no vote and the other four directors—Ebbetts, of Brooklyn; Murphy, of Chicago; Dreyfuss, of Pittsburgh, and Herrmann, of Cincinnati—will have to settle the matter. In case there is a tie vote it will act as a sustainer of President Lynch and the New York club will have to get three out of four votes to win.

TWO DEATHS IN BURGAW.

Mr. L. N. Bowden and Mrs. Willis Peters Pass Away—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Sept. 12.—The sudden death of Mr. L. N. Bowden Thursday morning was quite a shock to his friends. He lived about a mile and a half from town with his son and had been in his usual health, which was very good for a man of his advanced age, 83 years.

Thursday soon after breakfast, of which he partook as usual, he complained to his daughter of a severe pain in his stomach and told her he was going to die. She immediately sent for his sons who were not far away, and who went at once to see him, but he lived only about five minutes after they got there. He evidently died from an attack of acute indigestion, remaining perfectly conscious to the end. Mr. Bowden was probably the oldest citizen of the township, and had lived here all his life. His wife, who was a Miss Butler, of Sampson county, preceded him to the grave several years ago, and he leaves to mourn his loss four sons and one daughter. One son, the oldest, lives in Galveston, Texas, and the burial will not take place until he arrives, which will probably be Sunday. An embalmer was secured from Wilmington to embalm the body that it might be kept until the arrival of the son. The interment will be in the Burgaw cemetery beside his wife.

Another sudden death occurred in Burgaw Thursday night when Mrs. Willis Peters, who lived with her father, Mr. W. H. Futch, died after an illness of only a day or so. No one thought she was seriously ill as she had never required the services of a physician, and her father, who slept in an adjoining room, did not know anything was serious until he heard a noise that attracted his attention, and he went into her room to see what was the matter. He found her in a dying condition. She leaves two little children, one an infant about a month old. She also leaves a brother, several sisters, besides her father to mourn their loss. Her husband has been away from here several months and it is not known where he is at present.

Mr. Edwin Burton left a few days ago for Wake Forest, where he entered the law school.——Rev. Geo. F. Hill conducted his last regular service in the Episcopal church here Sunday evening. He will be succeeded by Rev. Mr. Showell, of Washington, who will reside in Clinton and have charge of the church there together with those at Burgaw, Faison and Warsaw.——Mr. Alex. Sholar is now in charge of the Burgaw Furniture Co.——Mrs. T. G. Vickers has returned from Raleigh where she spent some time with her mother.——Mrs. W. H. Lane and daughter, Miss Lillie Belle, of Wilmington, have been visiting relatives here this week.

The friends of Dr. H. B. Thomas will regret to hear that he has been confined to his bed for several days with fever. His brother, Rev. James Thomas, of Clinton, is with him. It is hoped he will be able to be out in a short time, as his condition was more favorable today.

There will be a civil service examination for rural mail carriers here on the 27th inst. This is to furnish a carrier for Rocky Point.

Farmers are making hay while the sun shines, as the sound of the mowing machine can be heard on every hand.

LURES MOSQUITOES TO DEATH

Mosquito Commission Plans to Wipe Out Pest With Music

The Atlanta American recently had the following that will be of interest here:

"The Mosquito Commission appointed to wipe out the mosquitoes of Atlantic City and its neighborhood—for which purpose $26,000 has been appropriated by the county board—thinks of trying a new method for exterminating the pests, which involves the use of musical vibrations generated by electricity.

"The idea was originated by A. DeP. Weaver, an electrical engineer of Jackson, Miss., while engaged not long ago in experiments in harmonic telegraphy, in which a musical note of a certain pitch was produced by electricity. He was amazed to find that when the note was raised to a certain number of vibrations per second, all the mosquitoes, not only in the room where the apparatus was, but also from other parts of the house and from outside, would congregate near the apparatus and be precipitated from the air with astonishing force against it.

"He then covered a large surface with sticky fly-paper, and, after sounding the note a few seconds captured all the mosquitoes in the vicinity.

"But it occurred to him that the method might easily be so modified as to kill the insects by electricity instead of trapping them. For this purpose he took a piece of wire window screen, washed the paint off it with turpentine, and mounted it on a board, driving small pins into the board between the meshes at intervals in such a way that their heads were flush with the surface of the wire net. All the pins being connected together electrically, an alternating current of high potential was passed through them, and, when the note was sounded, the mosquitoes which threw themselves upon the screen were instantly electrocuted.

"To make the reason for this clear it should be explained that the 'song' o fthe female mosquito seems to be intended for no other purpose than to attract the male. The latter is not a singer, but he carries on his head a pair of very remarkable 'whiskers'—if such they may be called—the hairs of which respond sympathetically to certain musical vibrations. It is by means of these whiskers (which are branching antennae), in fact, that the male mosquito hears.

"A human being as everybody knows, finds it very hard to determine with accuracy the direction from which a sound proceeds. It is not so, however, with the male mosquito, which probably has the faculty of judging sound-direction more highly developed than any other animal. And the reason why is simply this: If the song of the female is uttered directly in front of the head of the male, it is perceived with equal loudness with the hairs of both antennae. If the sound affects one antenna (or whisker) more than the other, he turns his head until both are affected equally. Then he knows that the female is directly in front, and he shown that he can judge in this way the exact direction of the female within five degrees.

"In view of this explanation it will be understood why the mosquitoes, when a certain musical note was sounded, flew against Mr. Weaver's apparatus. At all events, it is obvious why the male mosquitoes did it. The note sounded must ha vecorresponded in the number of its vibrations to the song of the female. But why did the females likewise precipitate themselves upon the wire screen? This is not adequately made clear. The important point, however, is that they did so; and it is believed by Mr. Wheeler that his method employed on a great scale out of doors, might rid whole towns or even districts of the pests, electrocuting them wholesale.

"The song of the female mosquito, which has been likened to the distant note of a bagpipe, is not made by her wings, but by the vibration of little shutters, which regulate the passage of air through openings for breathing on the sides of the insect's chest. As the air passes in and out, it makes the shutters vibrate. Flies and bees flies toward her. Experiments have sing in the same way."

HOME RULE DISCUSSION.

Earl Loreburn Stirs the Animals by Proposing Conference on Matter.

London, Sept. 12.—The recent appeal of Earl Loreburn, formerly Lord High Chancellor, that both the great political parties confer with a view to settlement of the Irish question by consent, on the ground that the present Home Rule bill cannot provide a permanent solution, as excited tremendous interest throughout the country and may have considerable influence in future discussions of the Liberal bill in Parliament. As a practical suggestion, however, it is believed that it will prove unavailing.

John Dillon, on behalf of the Nationalists, says a conference would be utterly useless unless the Unionists first admitted the principle of home rule. Thus all the parties are opposed to a conference and it is believed there is no chance for it to materialize.

London, Sept. 12.—The Dublin correspondent of the Daily Citizen sends an unconfirmed rumor to his paper of the resignation of the Earl of Aberdeen as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and connects it with the recent secret visit to Ireland of the Duke of Connaught and the proposal of Earl Loreburn for a discussion between the Liberals and the Unionists looking to a settlement of the Irish question.

Another incident supposed to be connected with Earl Loreburn's proposal was a visit last night of Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition in the House of Commons, to Lord Lansdown, the opposition leader in the House of Lords, prior to going to Balmoral Castle to see King George.

PHYSICIAN EXAMINES CHARLTON

Prisoner is Apparently in Perfect Condition of Health.

Como, Italy, Sept. 12.—Dr. Sala, part of whose duties consists of a visit to the prisoners in the Como jail every two weeks, today examined Porter Charlton, the young American who is held for beating his wife to death and then throwing her body in Lake Como.

Dr. Sala said it would be necessary to make a further examination fo the prisoner before he could give definite opinions concerning his mental and physical condition. Charlton, however, seems perfectly well, and eats and sleeps regularly.

Dispatches from the United States have hinted that Charlton's defense would include an allegation of insanity. A long memorandum outlining his defense, is now in the hands of the court, but has not been made public. The trial will probably go over until April.

SMASH STRAW HATS.

More Than Fifty Arrested for Assaulting Summer Headgear.

New York, Sept. 12.—More than 50 youths were arrested during the night for smashing straw hats to emphasize their opinion that the straw hat season was over. In night court early today most of them were fined $5 or $10. The youths for the most part worked on trolley cars.

UMPIRE INSANE.

Former American Leaguer Held in California Hospital.

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 12.—"Bull" Perrine, formerly American League umpire, was held at the receiving hospital here today on an affidavit of insanity sworn to by his sister, Miss Margaret Perrine.

London, Sept. 13.—The Daily Telegraph's Tokio correspondent says he believes the secret of the anti-Chinese agitation in Japan is due to the determination of the Japanese people that China shall be taught that Japan is not a negligible power.

RULES PERMANENTLY FIXED.

As Proposed by American Bankers and Liverpool Conference.

New York, Sept. 12.—In a statement today Charles S. Haight, a representative of the Liverpool Bill of Lading Conference committee, who recently returned from England, said he believes the rules adopted two years ago through the joint action of his committee and the American Bankers' Association, have been finally and permanently established.

In reaching this conclusion he argues that many cotton buyers abroad have indicated their willingness to use the cotton bills of lading Central Bureau at Liverpool and that most of the Continental cotton exchanges in all probability will follow the course recently adopted by the Liverpool Cotton Association, whereby only bills of lading issued under the conference railroad agreement are a good tender on contracts made on the floor of the exchange.

FOUR MONTHS FOR HOLLAND

Man Who Killed Negro in Wake Submits to Manslaughter—Guards Being Tried for Assaulting Convicts.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 12.—J. J. Holland, white, foreman of section gang on the Seaboard Air Line, who shot and instantly killed Vann Stewart, colored, two weeks ago because, he said, Stewart had persisted in indecent exposure of person where the Holland family could see him, submitted to a charge of manslaughter and was given four months, in Superior Court today.

The case against J. M. Nipper and Jim Johnson, Wake county road guards, charged with assaulting convicts, occupied all of Superior Court today and will not be concluded before late tomorrow.

Handicapped by the sentiment created over the exposure of conditions at a camp recently, the defense insisted tonight thatit would be vindicated. The defense will attempt to show a conspiracy to liberate all the convicts and that the whipping of four men was the result of this discovery. Many discrepencies appeared in the evidence of the State and the defense.

Leaf tobacco sales in the State in August aggregated 6,788,768 pounds, against 9,722,352 pounds last year. Wilson lead with 1,080,000 pounds and the only other market in the State selling over a million was Fairmont. Other markets were as follows: Kinston, 677,474; Greenville, 620,338; Winston-Salem, 437,888; Farmville, 400,037; Rocky Mount, 377,824; Smithfield, 324,489; Fair Bluff, 351,264; Reidsville, 234,981; Warsaw, 142,455; Wendell, 138,779; Williamston, 118,771; Snow Hill, 109,498; Wallace, 109,036; Pink Hill, 98,622; Madison, 106,698; Louisburg, 90,595; Richlands, 78,462; Greensboro, 74,795; Ayden, 60,620; Zebulon, 42,008; Durham, 23,670; Youngsville, 9,441; Stoneville, 7,354.

Others from that section of the State are Miss Mary Stevens, of Council; Misses Maude and Cora Clark, of Clarkton; Miss Fannie Nicholson, of Fayetteville, and Miss Mary Lou Powell, of Whiteville. State Crops Damaged 50 Per Cent.

That the growing crops on the State farm in Halifax county, were considerably damaged is the news that comes to Superintendent J. S. Mann, of the State's prison.

He left at once for the farm to make a personal investigation of the extent of the damage and have an eye to the best possible conservation of what is left. Superintendent Mann complains that the prison is being hit exceptionally hard now by the State in addition to a possible 50 per cent. loss of the immense crops grown on the prison farm. The policy of the Legislature in providing for large numbers of convicts to work on railroads and turnpikes and take stock in these as payment when every convict that the prison could get together could be hired out at other construction work for $1.50 per day cash, thereby yielding a steady revenue, is forcing the prison into a very unsatisfactory financial condition, unless the State can be required to pay over to the prison management the par value of the railroad stock the prison has taken for convict work and delivered to the State treasurere. The prison management will soon undertake, it is said, to get cash credit in the State treasury for at least a good part of this stock.

S. A. L. Pushing Double Track

The Seaboard Air Line is pushing the work of double tracking the section of the main line between Raleigh and Hamlet. There are three steam shovels at work between Hamlet and Hoffman, a 14-mile section of the road.

Governor Craig commissioned today R. A. Brown, of Raleigh, as treasurer of the North Carolina Audubon Society. Mr. Brown is receiving teller for the Citizen's National Bank. There was also a commission today to H. O. Bledsoe, of Raleigh, as game warden for the Audubon Society in this section of the State.

Col. J. P. Kerr, private secretary to Governor Craig, left today for Hyde county on business connected with the inauguration of the work of draining Mattamuskeet Lake, the biggest drainage project ever undertaken in the State. The dredging is expected to begin within a few weeks now.

THE WEED IS KING.

Wilson Tobacco Market Booming All the Time—Farmer Gets 22 Cts.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 12.—Not including the sales of tobacco today—the warehouse floors are full and double sales are in progress—Wilson market has handled two and one-half million pounds this week and this breaks all records in this section.

The reports for the month of August gave the Wilson market the top place with 1,080,795 pounds handled and the 11 days of September have been all big sale days. Tobacco men expect to see the total sales on this market go beyond 20,000,000 pounds for the season. The sale opened slow here the first few days of the season but there is no shortage of the leaf now. Prices are holding up well and the buyers are not losing any of their interest.

J. J. Farrell, of Lucama, sold 372 pounds of bright leaf tobacco on the local market yesterday for $81.80, an average of 22 cents a pound.

Would you like to be fat and plump and strong and hearty? Here is a chance so to do it without risking the loss of a single penny.

Before commencing the use of Samose have yourself correctly weighed and notice the gain from week to week.

TELLS OF MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

Tar Heel Lumberman Returns From a Trip Into Southern Republic.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 12.—R. M. Bryant, a wealthy lumberman of this city and Savannah, who has been spending a short time at his home here, gives an interesting account of conditions in Mexico, in which country he was a recent visitor.

He does not believe America should intervene in the strife-torn Southern Republic. He also states that the reports of mistreatment of American citizens there are exaggerated. Mr Bryant went to a point 250 miles west of Mexico City to investigate timber holdings. He was a guest of a former Governor who owned hundreds of thousands of acres of grazing lands, and who wanted to dispose of the timber on a portion of it to Mr. Bryant and business men affiliated with him.

The timber, the finest pine he had ever seen, could have been bought for a song, but was not purchased because of its inacessibility. Mr. Bryant, the owner of the estate, servants, and a detail of 11 National mounted police, rode through the mountains on horseback for two weeks on the prospecting trip.

"Frequently we were halted by soldiers, either Federals of insurrectionists, but never molested," said the returned traveler. "The troopers invariably inquired our business, whence we came, and which side in the war we favored. When he answered "neither' to the latter question, we were allowed to proceed. One guard, picturesque and splendidly armed, were indifferent to everything, seemingly. They all made their beds on the bare ground as soon as the party made camp for the night, and a sentry was never thought of. When we were accosted by soldiers the rurales took no part in the negotiations that ensued, and evidently did not intend to make trouble unless they were attacked.

"The suffrage is a farce in Mexico. On the place where I was a guest there were thousands of peons. These, allowed a few pigs and possibly a cow and a tiny patch of land besides the few dollars a year paid them, evidently do not care anything about political matters. On the day before an election the overseers distribute tickets to the vaqueros and other male peons of voting age, and on the morning of the election all are rounded up knowing for what or whom they are casting their votes."

"Americans are usually treated with respect by the natives," said Mr. Bryant, "and the suspicion of the Latin-Americans for their Northern neighbors' government does not extend to the individual who tries his fortune below the Rio Grande."

"MAMMA" WITH FAMILY AGAIN.

The Big Circus Elephant Caught Which Scared Orange County.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 12.—"Mamma", the big 75-year-old elephant which escaped from a circus at Hillsboro, N. C., Sunday morning, left here in a box car this morning to rejoin her family at Elkin, where the circus will show today.

The big quadruped was recaptured yesterday afternoon not far from Hillsboro after a four-days search by trainer and others. The elephant had been used as a target by men with all sorts of weapons and her pelt was full of bullets and buck shot, which had flattened out against and stuck into the leather-like hide of the animal.

Much excitement was caused people of Orange county and adjacent country by the elephant and many joined with the circus folks in the hunt. This is the second time the elephant has escaped, the other escape having been made in Florida many years ago and she was found mired down in a Florida swamp.

Secretary Forester of the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce, has written to Secretary of the Navy Daniels urging him to name the cruiser North Carolina, "Greensboro", in the event the name of the State is given to the new dreadnought in course of construction. The historical and geographical reasons for giving the name of Greensboro to the cruiser are elaborately and interestingly set out. No reply has yet been received from Secretary Daniels, but it is not likely that he will decide upon a name just yet.

"THE HILL'S" 119TH BIRTHDAY.

Faculty and Students Observe Anniversary at the University.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 12.—Celebrating its 119th birthday, the students and faculty of the University of North Carolina met in Gerrard Hall yesterday for the formal opening exercises of the term.

Nearly 800 students filled the hall. On the stage were ex-President Kemp P. Battle, of ante-bellum fame, whom Acting President Ed K. Graham introduced as the "head and corner of the University," having been connected with it as student, teacher and president for 60 years. The venerable ex-president spoke in his simple, effective way of the history of the University, concluding with wholesome advice to the incoming class.

The freshman class was welcomed by President Graham, who took the place of Governor Craig, who was expected but could not attend. He spoke of the debt of gratitude they owed North Carolina for the privilege of coming to the highest institution of learning in the State; and in return, he told them, the State expected service. He told each member of the class to find out what he wanted to do and do it while the opportunity presented itself.

With songs by the students, the observance of the 119th anniversary came to a close.

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE.

Wilson Gives Students and Faculty a Welcome—Enjoyable Programme.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 12.—One of the most interesting social functions of the season was the reception tendered the new pupils of the Atlantic Christian College tonight. Young people of Wilson, under the leadership of Miss Bessie Hackney, arranged for the pleasant occasion. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Caldwell, Rev. and Mrs. M. Bradshaw, Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Chambliss, and Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Shive. Music was furnished by the cornet band and an interesting welcome programme was given. Mr. Edward Bishop spoke words of welcome to the new students and the response was by Mr. Hayes Farish, of the college faculty. Greetings from the Wilson Baracas were given by Mr. Vernon Moss; on behalf of the Wilson Philatheas by Miss Annie Bishop. Mr. W. A. Lucas spoke on the subject, "The A. C. C. Faculty from the Citizen's Standpoint." Mr. John D. Gold was asked to speak on the subject, "Some Reasons Why Wilsonians Are Proud of the A. C. C." Mr. Edward Stillings rendered a pleasing violin solo and Miss Harriet Settle a piano solo. The evening was delightfully spent and a large number of Wilsonians were present.

..Theatrical..

"The Confession" by James Halleck Reid, which enjoyed a successful run at the Broadway Bijou Theatre, New York City, for six months and playing two successful seasons en tour, will be seen at the Academy of Music next Tuesday night, seats going on sale Monday morning at Plummer's.

"The Confession" dares to tell the truth and in its telling, unfurls a dramatic story of power, strength and literary merit. It uses for its theme a vital subject. A Priest's duty to his church, versus his duty to the State; in fact, it is a story that runs the gamut of every human emotion, and yet, in Mr. Reid's manuscript there is not a line that would offend the most sensitive. No more absorbing tragedy has ever been conceived, no greater stage picture and lesson ever presented.

Brilliant Savage Music Show.

More than ordinary interest is being manifested naturally, in the coming engagement of Mr. Savage's superb production of the joyous operetta, "Little Boy Blue" which will be seen at the Academy today week, matinee and night, following long runs in New York, Philadelphia and Boston. "Little Boy Blue" was so much of a success in New York City when played at the Lyric Theatre on 42nd street, that it continued there for six months.

Seats for both performances will be on sale next Thursday.

Four Big Ones at the Bijou.

With four big films, the flower of the moving picture world, it can well be said, the popular Bijou—the theatre that is electrically cooled and electrically ventilated—will bring the week-end to a big climax today. It is going to be the best all 'round Saturday bill, as well as the largest, ever served up. "Broncho Billy and the Navajo Maid" is one of today's leaders and that well known and clever romantic actor, Mr. G. M. Anderson, will appear in the stellar role, and will present a powerful portrayal. A swell Vitagraph is also a star in "Troublesome Daughters," which is one of the merriest of all films and will cause the biggest kind of laughs. Edison will offer a film of peculiar attractiveness in "Battlefields Around Chattanooga," which is of interest not only on account of the recent Confederate reunion in Chattanooga, but because of the G. A. R. reunion there next week. "The Right Number But the Wrong House" is also a big smile picture on today and should not be missed.

Grand is Cap-a-Pie.

The cozy, handsome Grand is in high fettle, cap-a-pie, for today's joyous work, and in the show that will be presented Grandites, whose name is legion, will find something decidedly choice and that will appeal to every taste. The Grand will set before amusement lovers a truly delightful bill, stirring with the dramatic and merry with comedy. A superb Vitagraph, "The Penalties of Reputation," leads the way and it is something away out of the ordinary. It tells of the final conquest of a dashing flirt. The story is bright and refreshing. "All On Account of a Portrait," is one of the jolliest of all film stories, setting forth how two lovers fall out over a beard and what becomes of the row. It's a continuous laugh. As the star of the dramatic films will be found Selig's "A Western Romance", which is a thriller, teeming with novel incidents. It is also something far out of the beaten path. Today's Grand bill should not be missed.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Man Wants $40,000 for Injuries Alleged Sustained on Locomotive.

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 12.—Guilford Superior Court is engaged in the trial of the case of W. L. Lloyd vs. the North Carolina and Southern Railway companies, in which the plaintiff asks for $40,000 damages on account of injuries received at Spencer while engaged in trying out an engine that had been overhauled at the shops there.

The case had been non-suited once but the Supreme Court overruled the order. A motion to non-suit was made before Judge Shaw this morning but the court held this time that the case should go to the jury. It is being tried under the Federal Employers' Liability act, and is the biggest damage suit tried here in some time.

"We must fight the women," says a mere male who is opposed to equal rights for women. The best way to fight women is to hit the grit when they are seen coming abreast in battle array.

Says the Charleston News and Courier: "The trouble with giving women a voice in the government is that they would always demand the last word." Then, again, if they were to unite in raising their voices in behalf of liberty of speech for women they might make a noise like an afternoon tea.

Even as bad as it is on the New Haven road, we would prefer to risk it than to take aerial journeys in the Zeppelin class of dirigible air ships. Out of twelve Zeppelin craft that have been experimented with as many as twelve have collapsed and caused a lot of funerals.

The Democrats in Congress are in doubt lest they slip up on the banana tax. Somebody has urged that the duty be levied because there is a banana trust. It should be remembered however, that the trusts always pass along the tax to those who get on the outside of bananas. The consumer, he pays the tax.

PROGRESS IN CUMBERLAND.

Cumberland county having adopted the no-fence law at an election held last Tuesday, the Newbern Journal commends that evidence of progressiveness on the part of that upper Cape Fear county. The Journal comments as follows:

"This looks to us like progress though we fully understand that there are many among the readers of the Journal, particularly its farmer readers, who think differently. Perhaps these will one day change their views on the question. A circumstance that should have the effect of hastening such a change of opinion is the fact that communities which adopt the stock law stick to it. Champions of the law say that no township or county that ever adopted the law has given it up. We do not know how true this is, but as opponents of the measure do not refute it, we think it safe to accept the statement as the truth and so accepting it one is obliged to think the stock law a good thing. One great need for a stock law is to meet partially at least the growing demand for beef cattle. With the beef packers of the West putting prices up on every available pretext, something must be done so that a wholesome supply of this article of food can be provided. With cattle running at large in the woods, that sort of supply is said by persons who have investigated the matter to be impossible. It is said by one authority that it may be considered an axiom of husbandry that a farming country is prosperous in proportion to the livestock it produces. The stock law is certainly more conducive to the production of the best grades of livestock than the open range."

Since Cumberland has decided that it is not only more economical to fence cattle than it is to fence crops, and that it is better for both the cattle and agricultural industries of the county, other counties are bound to follow suit. Tick-infested counties surrounding tick-free New Hanover county are shut out of the Wilmington market with their cattle. It hurts Wilmington as well as them, and owing to the government's strict quarantine regulations against tick-infested territory, it is becoming more difficult for such counties to market such cattle as they raise. While such cattle have been shut out of the Wilmington market, the Fayetteville market has been open to them, with the result that nearly every steamer that goes up the Cape Fear to Fayetteville carries anywhere from five to twenty cattle in all sorts of conditions. Now that Cumberland will be quarantined against the cattle of the neighboring counties, what are they to do but follow Cumberland's example?

The cattle carried on the steamers to Fayetteville are taken on at river stations reached by cattle from Pender, Bladen and Cumberland counties, and while neither the number nor quality of the stock entitles it to be considered an industry, it indicates the possibility of its becoming so because of the ready demand for beef cattle in all our towns and cities. With the towns and cities in territory that is quarantined from cattle produced in woods-range counties, the latter will have to adopt the no-stock law in self-defense. The government not only offers to eradicate the cattle tick free of cost in counties that have the no-fence law, but the Agricultural Department will send experts to the different counties to fully post them on the advantage and necessity of tick eradication. No county can afford to become isolated, and as the cattle industry is bound to be one of this county's greatest resources, next to agriculture itself, we should begin to appreciate its immense possibilities in eastern North Carolina.

Arguments against the no-fence law avail nothing in the face of the inevitable and in the light of experience, both past and present. No township or county ever submitted to stock law without a most earnest protest and much bitterness; but no township or county we ever heard of went back to open-range conditions after stock law had been tried. People of the Piedmont and western counties saw ruin staring them in the face when stock law was put in operation, and argued vehemently that they would not be able to feed their cattle, that stock raising was at an end. Today those sections of the State have the finest cattle in the country, blooded cattle, fine dairy herds, fine beef cattle, and agriculture has gone forward until those farmers are abreast of the times. It almost caused civil war when stock law was enforced among them; it would precipitate civil war if stock law was abolished. Their experience is the experience of all people in this matter; it will be the same in Eastern Carolina.

RAILROADS AND THE PORTS.

While the government is developing the ports and waterways for the great National benefit to accrue in building up the commerce of the United States, one of the most notable results of the improvement of ocean gateways is the railroad development that it brings about. This country's exports the past 12 months approached the $4,500,000,000 mark, and that immense traffic had to first be handled by the railroads as raw materials and finished products.

The value of the ports to the railroads can best be emphasized by the fact that every great railway system in America heads for some ocean gateway. Most of the great railroads seek connections and terminals at one or more ports, and some of the great transcontinental lines aim for ports on both the Atlantic and the Pacific.

North Carolina should take particular note of the fact that the deep water ports are the objective points for all the new railroad developments in this country. They are either building to deep water points or are linking up with railroad systems that have ocean outlets. Witness how the railroads headed for deep water at Norfolk. Take notice of the rail trend towards Charleston. Behold the development of Savannah, New Orleans and Galveston, the three greatest cotton ports of the world.

Railroad builders are the keenest of all the industrial captains. They lay out their lines to go to the most advantageous ports—not the nearest ones, but the ones with the deepest water and the most ample steamship service. Deep water is everything in the eyes of the railroad builders, and if North Carolina wishes to be traversed from east to west by some of the great systems of the present as well as of the future, the best way to entertain and attract them is to see to it that Wilmington and Southport are made a deep water port at the earliest moment.

It ought to be done because the Cape Fear ocean gateway is from 60 to 100 miles closer to the ocean highway of the steamship lines than any other South Atlantic port. The great port of New York does two-thirds of the commerce of the country, and the ships sailing south from there to the lower Atlantic, to the Gulf and to the Pacific pass right off Frying Pan Shoals lightship that rides the heaving waters as a beacon for the Cape Fear bar. The same can be said of the ships bound back to New York, and to and from Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk and all ports in the great commercial East. European shipping follows the same course, the ocean highway that passes the very portals of North Carolina. Won't we, please, wake up to that fact?

Let us remember that deep water and railroads, and that trunk lines and ocean gateways, mean everything in the development of great cities.

GET OUT OF THE COW CLASS.

A few months ago Charleston got out of the class of towns which permit backlot dairies. Wilmington had so long ago banished the fly-breeding cow pen from the downtown districts, that she could take a laugh at Charleston in her efforts to prevent people from keeping cows under the nose of their metropolitan neighbors. However, Wilmington seems to be disposed to become reactionary and may give Charleston a chance to return the laugh.

At the meeting of the Wilmington City Council on Thursday, the cow ordinance adopted two years ago, prohibiting the keeping of cows within 50 feet of any dwelling, was amended so as to permit the animals to be kept within ten feet of a residence. The County Board of Health, in session Thursday afternoon, very properly adopted a resolution declining to concur in the Council's amendment, and taking the position that the Board of Health alone has the power to alter such ordinances as affect the health and sanitation of the city.

Wilmington has made too much progress in health and sanitation, and the improved conditions are so marked in a general way, that the city could not afford to take a backward step. The risk to the public health is not only too great, but the city would be liable for damages in permitting a nuisance and menace in any community, especially if sickness could be traced to cow lots. It would be an easy matter to do that by the testimony of physicians and the evidence of the typhoid fly.

Those good people who want to keep cows in the city should have some consideration for their neighbors and the health conditions of the city. Why not remove all cows outside the city and establish a co-operative dairy?

FOR DRAINING TIDAL LANDS.

Representative James F. Byrnes, the new Congressman from the Charleston district, has just introduced a joint resolution, which he offered at the last session of Congress, directing the secretary of agriculture to cause a survey to be made of the swamp and tidal lands of the Second district of South Carolina in order to determine the feasibility and cost of leveeing and draining those lands.

While draining such areas would be for the purpose of reclaiming rich lands for agricultural purposes, the survey also will take into consideration the benefit to public health as a result of draining mosquito-breeding swamps. Mr. Byrnes' resolution was referred to the committee on agriculture, of which Representative Lever, of South Carolina, is chairman.

If the committee reports the bill favorably, it may as well include North Carolina and other States which have swamp lands or wet lands that require drainage. Otherwise, every Congressman would be on his feet with a motion to amend the bill.

North Carolina has an effective drainage law which enables drainage projects to be carried out with the proceeds of bond issues that secure money at from 5 to 6 per cent. interest. The chief advantage of a government drainage law might be a saving of two per cent. in interest, while government drainage engineers would be available for making surveys and estimates for communities which undertake to comply with the government drainage law.

CHANCE FOR AN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

Through agitation on The Star's editorial page, by means of contributions and editorials, Wilmington has an opportunity to have an industrial or technological school as a part of the public school system of the city. It has been all talk heretofore, but The Star can lay its hands on one public spirited contributor's $100 as a starter. He states that it is estimated that $700 to $1,000 will establish the nucleus of an institution in which vocational education can be taught to the boys, and that he will be one of seven or ten to plank down the money to begin business. Who will be the next to come across, with $100 or $1,000? Don't sleep many days over such a fine opportunity to be a blessing to the community!

Wilmington, which was proclaimed the other day by the Wilmington Star as being "The Whole Works City," is now making a bid to be recognized as Paradise. What will Wilmington next want to be? Here is the way The Star puts it: "Mr. Carnegie believes 'an earthly paradise is in sight.' He should come at once to Wilmington and get a glimpse of the earthly paradise that can be made of this region. This is it and it only needs money to develop it. That's all."—Farmer and Mechanic.

North Carolina farmers are greatly encouraged over the present prices of tobacco and cotton. They are also greatly encouraged over the fact that they have the strongest State Farmers' Union in America, that the co-operation idea is everywhere taking root, that their recent State Farmers' Convention and State Housewives' Convention were the biggest ever held, that the Agricultural and Mechanical College has the biggest opening in its history, and that the freight rates situation promises relief for them. They also rejoice in having a fine corn crop and while last week's storm seriously damaged forage, this situation will be remedied by heavier planting of clover, rye, etc., to save buying high-priced feed next Spring.—Progressive Farmer.

The August business of the C., C. & O. Railway Company, in both the freight and passenger departments, shows an increase of about 25 per cent. over the business for the same month of last year, according to a statement made by Theo. Dehon, local representative. The passenger traffic has possibly shown greater increase than the freight department, which is an indication that the seashore resorts, while doing a rushing business did not have a monopoly on vacationists and pleasure-seekers. Various points in the mountains through which the C., C. & O. traverses have become popular, and several Spartanburg people are investing heavily in property at Alta Pass and Unaka Springs. It is reported that local people will spend $30,000 in the erection of a modern hotel at Unaka Springs before next season. — Spartanburg Journal.

Col. S. A. Jones, of the Transcontinental Railroad, is laboring under the impression that it is The Observer which some weeks ago criticised him for the length of his articles for the newspapers, and in a letter received from him yesterday, he makes that the burden of his song. We must first disabuse his mind. It was The Charlotte Chronicle that read him the lecture. His quarrel must be with that paper. Colonel Jones writes in appreciation of an editorial in The Observer of a few days ago and takes occasion to outline his plans for the future—these plans looking to the prosecution of the work of constructing the Transcontinental along the original lines. He is not discouraged by the recent reverses—the death of the chief engineer and the appointment of a receiver for the company. This latter proceeding was of mutual understanding with a view to putting the company on a new basis. The receivership course was adopted for honest protection. Colonel Jones says the road will be built as previously planned from the Tennessee coal fields through Knoxville, through Waynesville, Hendersonville, Rutherfordton, Gastonia and Charlotte, touching Monroe, Rockingham, Laurinburg, Wadesboro, Lumberton, Whiteville, Wilmington and to Southport. There is no doubt of the fact that the building of this road would make the State largely independent of freight discrimination. But the object of this article is not to go into argument. It is to give the fact that Jones has not given up—that he is planning re-organization looking toward the final building of the road as originally intended. In that determination, The Observer wishes him well.—Charlotte Observer.

OPENING OF THE NORMAL.

Applications for Rooms in Popular State College Numerous.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 12.—The State Normal and Industrial College students have begun to arrive. Examinations will be held next week for entrance to the freshman class, but the formal opening will not take place until Monday, September 22nd.

Applications for rooms have been unusually large and no doubt there will be several who wish to enter turned away. Such has been the experience of the college for several years. There is room for about 700 students at the college and the capacity is being increased every year, but the growth is not sufficient to meet the constantly increasing demand of young women of the State for higher education.

Many changes in the faculty and additions to it have been announced by President Foust, among them the following: Miss Christine Reincken, a native German, as assistant in German; Miss Elizabeth Potwine, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke, assistant in mathematics; Miss Susie E. Purvis, of Virginia, assistant in English; Dr. Anna M. Gove, as college physician, has a leave of absence and her place will be supplied by Dr. Grace Huse; Miss Harriet W. Elliott, graduate of Columbia, assistant in history; together with a number of other additions and changes.

FIVE CHILDREN TO WORK FOR

Quite an Undertaking for a Lady, But Mrs. Wright Doesn't Mind Now.

Asheville, N. C.—Mrs. Minnie Wright, of R. F. D. No. 1, this city, says: "I don't think there is any medicine made that would have done me the good Cardui, the woman's tonic, did. I have five children to work for, and I praise Cardui for giving me the good health to do it.

I was in a delicate condition, on account of a relapse of measles which left me in a bad shape, and I also had severe headaches and backache. Was in too bad a fix for anyone to live, it seemed to me.

I was told that my only chance was an operation, but I decided to try Cardui instead. I only took two bottles and now I am well and strong again.

I don't believe there is any medicine on earth that will help suffering women as Cardui will. I have already gotten several ladies to try it, and I am going to continue to recommend your medicine."

For more than 50 years Cardui has been successfully used in the treatment of womanly ills. It has been found to relieve women's pains, and strengthen women's weakness.

If you are a woman, and suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to your sex, we urge you to give Cardui a trial. It has helped more than a million women in the past half century, and will do the same for you if given a fair trial.

Your druggist sells Cardui.

GRAND JURY FINISHES WORK

Made Report to Court Yesterday Afternoon and Discharged for the Term—Some Observations and Recommendations

The grand jury for the September term of Superior Court finished its work yesterday afternoon and following report to the court was discharged. Judge Rountree remarked that the grand jury had done its work faithfully and well and was entitled to the honor of being the most active grand jury that has done service in a court over which he has precided

The grand jury made several observations and recommendations with reference to the institutions of the county. The report in full follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 12th, 1913.

"Hon. George Rountree, Judge Presiding, Superior Court New Hanover County:

"The grand jury have the honor to report that they have examined into and returned 327 true and 13 not true bills, and have made 323 presentments.

The Usual Congestion.

"We have visited the jail and find it to be in very good condition under the circumstances, the prisoners seem to be satisfied, with no complaint, they have good wholesome food and are well treated. We find in some instances a rather congested condition which cannot be avoided until enlargement can be made of the same, we, therefore, recommend that as scon as possible the jail be enlarged to a capacity sufficient for the requirements.

"We have also visited the Court House, county home and convict camps, we find that the toilets for colored in the Court House are still out of commission and we recommend that this be remedied as soon as possible.

Convict Camps Well Kept.

"The convict camp on the Gordon road we find in good condition, clean cages and wholesome food, we would recommend, however, that the stove used in the wooden building for cooking be removed to a greater distance from the feed room than it is at present, thereby lessening the danger of fire.

"At the East Wilmington camp we find conditions very good. The detention house being as clean as practicable, sanitary arrangements and food good. We recommend that the sick be segregated in this camp, especially those who have contagious diseases, two such cases coming under our notice.

"At the Federal Point camp we find all conditions to be good.

"At all places we recommend that screens or other covering be kept over the provisions, meats, etc., as a protection from flies. We especially wish to commend the county home and farm as being in excellent condition.

Provide Permanent Quarters.

"We feel that permanent arrangements should be made for the care of county prisoners, male and female, and that a space should be set aside either on county property or otherwise for the detention of same, and that they should be kept separated individually as far as practicable, and that a stronghold of concrete or other suitable material be built for the securing of the same, surrounded by a stockade.

Remove Refuse at Night.

"We strongly urge that refuse be removed from the city exclusively at night, in air-tight receptacles and that the greatest care be observed in the removal of the same.

"We find that the soil deposit in South Wilmington is now as well arranged as possible and that the cause of past complaint has been removed. We find also that the incinerator is in good order and does its required work well.

Officials Commended

"In conclusion we desire especially to commend the County Board of Commissioners and the county auditor in their efforts to remedy the evils that have existed in the past.

"Having completed our duties we beg to be discharged.

"Respectfully,
"D. J. FERGUS,
"Foreman Grand Jury.
"W. M. ATKINSON, Secretary."

TO MOVE EXPRESS OFFICE.

City Headquarters of Southern Express Co. to be on Front Street.

After October 1st the city office of the Southern Express will be on the first floor of the Sternberger building, No. 414 North Front street, where the present temporary warehouse for the express people is located. The offices of the superintendent of the Atlantic division and the route agent will also be in this building. A part of the old car shop at the head of the railroad track near the present union station, has been leased, and is now being fitted up for a depot office and warehouse.

In these new offices and warehouse the Southern Express Co., will have ample room in which to take care of their increasing business. The present city office is at No. 109 Chesnut street, and has been located here for the last 11 years. While the new location will be little removed from the central portion of the city, Mr. J. W. Smith, the clever and accommodating agent here, stated yesterday that he did not consider the removal to a new location, only three blocks from the present office, would prove to be any inconvenience to the public.

The removal to the new office will be made on October 1st or possibly a few days before. In their new quarters with increased floor space it is hoped to give even better service to the citizens of the city than they are now getting. Both offices will be in close proximity to the new station, thus making the least possible delay in transferring freight from the trains to the offices.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DEMPSEY.

Requiem mass for the repose of the soul of Mrs. J. B. Dempsey, who died Wednesday afternoon at the family home in this city, was said yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, Rev. Father Dennen being the celebrant. The sad services were attended by many friends. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery. The grave was covered with many beautiful floral designs. The pallbearers were as follows: Honorary, Messrs. James Allen and A. J. Moore; active, Messrs. G. Henry Haar, H. H. Elliott, James Sheehan, B. L. Barnes, D. Carroll and W. H. Applewhite.

SCHOOL COMMITTEEMEN MEET

Interesting Educational Meeting at Hemenway School Building Yesterday—Rural School Questions Discussed.

As a fitting close to the Teachers' Institute which has been in progress here for the past ten days a meeting of the school committeemen of the county together with the members of the Board of Education was held in the auditorium of the Hemenway school building yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of public instruction, presided. Owing to the fact that this is a busy season, especially with those in the county, there was not a large attendance. There were a number of teachers present.

The discussions were entirely informal and devoted to topics of vital interest to the schools of the county. The relation between the school committee and the teacher was first taken up, and it was the concensus of opinion that they should co-operate with each other in advancing the welfare of the school and the community in general.

Rural Domestic Science.

The teaching of domestic science was touched upon briefly, and it was suggested that a teacher be employed who should give her entire time to the teaching of this subject spending a few days at each school in the county during the Winter while the schools are in session. It was generally agreed that this is a good idea if the necessary funds for carrying it out were available.

Another subject discussed was the beautifying of the school premises. A number made suggestions of methods for securing the interest of the pupils in improving the appearance of the school grounds. It was the general belief of those present at the meeting that lawns were preferable to planting flowers and shrubbery as they do not require so much care, especially during the Summer months when the schools are not in session.

Board Doing All It Can.

Mr. J. Q. Carr, chairman of the Board of Education, made an interesting talk at the conclusion of the general discussion. He stated that the board is doing all in its power to put the rural schools on the same basis as the city schools are run. The biggest handicap is the lack of money. Simply increasing the salary of each teacher in the county $2.50 a month would add $3,000 a year to the expense budget.

The board is spending all the money at its disposal, and however much it may desire to put in a teacher of domestic science or make any other improvements along these lines it cannot now do so because of a lack of funds. Another difficulty in the way in the county that does not exist in the city is the fact that a teacher in the city can teach 50 pupils with greater ease than the rural teacher can teach 25 because of being able to place many children in the same grade which is not possible in the county.

Schools Open Monday.

Prof. Catlett followed Mr. Carr and heartily endorsed the plan for securing a teacher of domestic science for the public schools of the county, and hoped that within the near future that this could be done. He also stated that the school committeemen could have other meetings during the Winter. He emphasized the importance of their visiting the schools while they are in session, and several promised that they would do so.

The Fall term of the rural schools will open Monday morning and Prof. Catlett is confident that the enrollment will be the largest ever known in the county. He expets the average attendance to show up better this year than it has ever done before because deeper interest is taken in educational matters and the schools are constantly improving. Ordinarily the rural schools open in this county the first Monday in September, but the opening had to be postponed two weeks this year on account of the Teachers' Institute. Heretofore this county has got along without a Teachers' Institute, but this year the State Superintendent made the holding of an institute compulsory.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Robert Brown, Colored, Sent to the Roads for Three Months.

Robert Brown, colored, was sent to the county roads for three months yesterday by the Recorder for an attempt to steal some tobacco from The Stone Co., wholesale grocers. Mr. F. W. Kuhl, the company's shipping clerk, stated that on Thursday afternoon just before closing he sent one of the negroes to get a rat trap, and found that it had been placed near the window and a box of tobacco placed on top of it so that it could be easily reached from the outside through a broken glass.

After closing the store he watched, and soon saw Brown go into the alley and attempt to get the tobacco out, but he failed to do so on account of the rat trap having been removed. Brown had been employed by The Stone Co., for several days.

James Brown, colored, was taxed with the costs, and ordered to pay Mr. A. S. Yeager $3 for damages done to a show case in an affray between Brown and another negro, who made his escape, Thursday night in Mr. Yeager's store, corner Seventh and Castle streets. Being unable to raise the money Brown was sent to the roads for 30 days. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in a case against James Wessell, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law as it appeared that he had bought the whiskey for another person and did not derive any profit from the transaction.

LARGE SHARK CAPTURED.

Monster Fish Brought to Shore at Wrightsville Beach.

So far as known the largest shark ever caught with hook and line was brought to shore at the Seashore pier at Wrightsville Beach by Messrs. Stephen Brock, S. A. Nathan, John Jordan and George Lawhorn Thursday. The monster fish was 10 feet one inch long and measured 21 inches from eye to eye. While it was not weighed those who saw it yesterday estimated its weight from 500 to 800 pounds. The fish was seen playing around near the end of the pier and immediately a shark line was rigged up and baited with a mullet. The shark took the hook at once, and as it seemed determined to make for the deen water, it took four men to finally land it on shore. It attracted much attention from the visitors at the beach yesterday.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Interesting Meeting of Wilmington Association Held at Wallace Baptist Church—Splendid Reports from Members.

The Wilmington delegation which attended the third annual session of the Woman's Missionary Union at Wallace Thursday returned to the city early yesterday morning. It was a most interesting meeting and was full of inspiration for the large number who attended. Burgaw was chosen as the next place of meeting. Mrs. George E. Leftwich, of Wilmington, was re-elected associational vice-president of the union, and the office of secretary was left vacant to be filled later by the committee on nominations.

The morning session was opened with devotional services lead by Mrs. W. P. Oldham, of Wilmington. Addresses of welcome were made by Mrs. F. P. Powers, of the Baptist church, and by Mrs. Westbrooks, of the Methodist church, which were responded to by Mrs. C. B. Newcomb, of Wilmington. The programme was carried out to the letter.

Among those who helped to make the meeting such a success by making splendid talks were Mrs. S. H. Burtt, Mrs. E. P. Brock, Mrs. Addison Hewlett and Mrs. C. D. Weeks, of Wilmington; Mrs. J. T. Bland, Burgaw; Mrs. W. E. Taylor, Richlands; Miss Myrtle Lee Stephens and Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Wilmington; Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia; Mr. John Hocutt, Ashton; Miss Mary Lou Powers, Willard; Rev. W. M. Craig, Misses Allie White, Lila Keith and Kate Corbett and Mrs. C. B. Newcomb, Wilmington.

The sweet singing of Mrs. C. D. Weeks and Master George Leftwich, Jr., also added much to the programme and was greatly enjoyed. There were also many inspiring spiritual songs by the large congregation.

The address at night by Rev. Livingston Johnson, secretary of the State Mission Board, was heard by a large audience, and was delivered in his usual forceful and eloquent manner. In speaking of the work that the women are doing and of the church building fund largely given by them which is used for erecting churches in needy places he exhibited the photographs of the churches helped during the past five years. He also spoke of the work in the State and its relation to the home and foreign missions.

The reports of the various committees on the year's work were most gratifying. The number of new members enrolled and the number of societies organized exceeded the highest expectations.

The amount of money raised for missionary work was also larger than the members had hoped for. The interest manifested by the large number of delegates was most striking. This was the most largely attended meeting that the Woman's Union for the Wilmington association has ever had. Too much cannot be said in praise of the cordial welcome and hearty hospitality extended the visitors by the people of Wallace.

WILLIAM FOY, AHOY!

Again in Toils of Law After Only Three Days' Respite.

Once again William Foy, colored, is in the limelight for the same old offense, namely, selling booze. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Special Officer H. Mack Godwin on a warrant issued before Justice Harriss, and lodged in jail to await a hearing before Justice Harriss this morning at 9 o'clock. He was tried Tuesday morning before the Recorder on two charges of selling whiskey, one of these being made by the police and the other coming from Justice Harriss' court.

The police raided his place several days ago, and found 20 half pints of whiskey. It was also shown in the other case that he had received a trunk at Castle Haynes containing 12 gallons more or less of "spirits". The Recorder fined him $100 and the costs in one case and suspended judgment in the other.

OPENING OF NEW ROAD.

Gordon Road Improvement Will be Completed in Short Time.

The improvements on the old Gordon road which leaves the Castle Haynes road near the county home will soon be completed, and will be the means of opening one of the county's most fertile sections of farming land. The work is being done by a force of convicts under the general supervision of Road Supervisor Burnett. The road traverses a highly fertile section in the northeastern portion of the county between the Castle Haynes road and the Scott's Hill road.

The Red Cross hospital which is rapidly nearing completion, is located on this road. This institution under the auspices of the Red Cross Society, of this city, will care for those in the county suffering with tuberculosis.

Taxable Values from Raleigh.

Mayor Moore yesterday received from Mr. A. J. Maxwell, clerk of the State Corporation Commission, Raleigh, showing the taxable valuation of railroads and telegraph and telephone companies doing business here. The figures were as follows: Atlantic Coast Line, $149,752; Seaboard Air Line, $28,217; Western Union Telegraph Company, $1,858; Postal Telegraph Company, $228.75; Southern Bell Telephone Co., $104,201.

COMPLETE CRIMINAL DOCKET

September Term Superior Court Nears End—Will Likely Hear Some Civil Matters Monday. Cottle on Roads.

The machinery of the court having moved along so easily and so swiftly that nearly all the cases ready for trial were disposed of in the first five days of the term, it is likely that the criminal side of the Superior Court docket will be completed today. Court will not adjourn, however, for the term for Judge Rountree announced yesterday that he would probably hear some civil cases Monday.

Splendid progress has been made in court this week and every day an immense amount of work was handled. Long hours have been observed and everything worked smoothly after the first day which combined with the business-like methods which Judge Rountree demands in his court enabled the transaction of more than the usual amount of business each day. It was thought likely last week that all of the two weeks of the term would be required in the trial of criminal matters, so the bar of the county at a meeting last Friday decided not to set a civil calendar. By consent some cases may be taken up Monday anyway.

Tried Another Bill.

The grand jury yesterday returned not a true bill in a second bill of indictment against Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, county superintendent of health, and the members of the County Board of Health. The bill as drafted alleged that they had violated the law in that "they allowed and authorized to be committed and allowed a public nuisance to exist and continue for a long space of time by the depositing of refuse, human excrement and other offensive matter in the southwestern part of the city of Wilmington and in the vicinity contiguous thereto, so that it seriously affected the health and well being of the citizens of said city residing in that neighborhood, and being offensive and of bad odor, the common nuisance of all the good citizens," etc.

This is the second bill of indictment passed upon by the September grand jury wherein Dr. Nesbitt and the County Board of Health were charged with common nuisance. The other was an indictment charging nuisance in permitting refuse in sanitary cans to be hauled through the city in the day time. As in the other case "not a true bill" was found.

In the case of the Standard Supply Company against H. M. Brown judgment for $211.60 and interest at 6 per cent. from October 1st, 1912, was entered.

Two Years for Larceny.

Herbert Johnson, a young white man, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of larceny by trick. He got $6 in money for a crate of eggs which he never delivered. In reply to a question from the court, Johnson said that he had been in court four times on different charges and Judge Rountree promptly sentenced him to two years on the roads.

John Galloway, colored, who has been held in jail for several months on suspicion that he was connected with the murder of Will Blount, colored, at Noble's landing some months ago, was discharged, no bill having been received from the grand jury against him.

Cases against Gussie Greer and Eliza McGary, charged with running a disorderly house, were nol prossed with leave. Similar action was taken in a case against Etta Barlow, charged with vagrancy. Nol pros with leave was also taken in a case against Henry Jones, charged with forgery.

Cases in which J. A. Oldham, "Bob" Sneed and William Struthers, Jr., were charged with gambling, were nol prossed with leave. The bills of indictment charged the defendants with gambling on pool tables. Mr. Oldham is one of the proprietors of the Wilmington Cigar Store and Mr. Struthers formerly conducted the Struthers cigar store and pool room. A similar case against Mr. W. I. Baxter was tried at the last term of court, resulting in a verdict for the defendant. The point was whether or not the element of gambling entered so strongly into a certain kind of pool that was being played here as to make it a violation of the law. The jury said it did not in the Baxter case.

J. S. Blake, colored, was found guilty of a charge of forgery and was sentenced to two years on the county roads.

The grand jury returned a true bill against Ernest Jenkins, colored, charged with the murder of Bruce Pierce, colored, on April 20th. Jenkins has not been arrested.

Notice of Escapes.

Judge Rountree made further comment yesterday on the escape of Wesley Hamilton from the county roads and asked that Mr. R. A. Burnett, the superintendent of roads, be in court today to give an explanation of the failure to notify the sheriff's office and police headquarters of the escape. Woodus Kellum, Esq., informed the court that Hamilton escaped before Mr. Burnett became superintendent. Judge Rountree also inquired if any one knew the percentage of convicts that escape from the roads in this county. No one was able to answer him. He expressed confidence in the Board of Commissioners and thought that they would have the employes make prompt report of any escapes from the roads.

The case against Myrtle Page, charged with keeping a bawdy house, was continued. York Waters and Jim Edwards were found not guilty of assault with deadly weapon.

A mistrial resulted in the case of Mrs. Lilia Darling who is suing her husband, Edward G. Darling, for divorce. The case will likely be heard again today.

As to Delinquents.

Judge Rountree yesterday had the following entry made as to the large number of persons indicted at this term for failure to list their taxes:

"It was ordered by the court that all parties indicted by the grand jury for failure to list taxes will be discharged from the indictment upon their listing their taxes promptly and paying the costs."

The costs amount to $7.25 if paid before caplas is issued. If caplas is issued it will be $2 additional.

Cottle Goes to Roads.

Ben J. Cottle, who Thursday was sentenced to 12 months on the county roads for selling an alcoholic beverage, was taken out to the camp yesterday with a large number of other prisoners to begin his term.

In giving an account in yesterday's Star of the efforts of Mayor Moore and Justice Harriss recently and former Chief Fowler early last Spring to work up cases against Cottle, whose place at Eighth and Castle streets, had called forth many complaints from citizens in that vicinity, reference to the part played by Chief of Police Williams in working up the case in which violation of the prohibition law was charged was inadvertently omitted. Through the efforts of L. A. Justice, who was employed by the Department of Public Safety, to aid in running down "blind tigers" sufficient evidence was procured to base a charge on June 14th last of violating the prohibition law. The case was tried in the Recorder's court and Cottle appealed. The case charging disorderly house was brought by the grand jury at the April term on testimony furnished through the police department, Mr. John J. Fowler chief. Judgment was suspended in this case Thursday by Judge Rountree.

Councilman Jones, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, yesterday issued the following statement with reference to the account in yesterday's paper:

"Your reference to the Cottle case does not do justice to Chief Williams and the present administration. The last administration never succeeded in convicting Cottle, and the cases recently brought against him have not been docketed in the Superior Court. A few weeks ago Chief Williams employed a special officer, who succeeded in getting sufficient evidence against Cottle to secure his conviction in the Recorder's court, from which he appealed. This is the case, and the only case of liquor selling, upon which this party has ever been convicted, and it is the case upon which he received sentence of one year in the Superior Court this week. It only cost the city $4.90 to secure the evidence necessary to convict in this case. The other case against Cottle, that of running a disorderly house, was based upon an indictment brought in the Superior Court, several policemen being the witnesses who appeared before the grand jury. My object in mentioning this case is merely to keep history straight, there being no purpose on my part to air the misfortunes of young Cottle."

Late yesterday afternoon George Brown, colored, was given hearing on charge of attempted criminal assault upon a 14-year-old negro girl from the sound, and after being out about four hours the jury at 10 o'clock last night returned a verdict of not guilty.

TWO FIRES YESTERDAY.

Smoke House of Pure Food Market Badly Damaged by Blaze.

Fire, supposed by the firemen to have been caused by a short circuit of electric wires, seriously damaged the smoke house of the Pure Food market, No. 201 Market street, last night at 7:40 o'clock. The alarm was turned in promptly, and the firemen extinguished the flames before the walls had been seriously damaged. There were several motors and considerable machinery in the room which suffered serious damage. Smoke also penetrated into the main room of the market causing some injury. The entire loss is estimated at from $800 to $1,000 though it was impossible last night to tell much about the loss on acccunt of a lack of lights.

The loss is partially covered by insurange.

The fire department was also called out yesterday morning at 7:40 o'clock by a small blaze in a house, occupied by colored people, on Seventh street, between Castle and Queen, caused by the burning of some rags. It was quickly subdued, and no damage of consequence was done.

Someone remarked last night at the fire that it was a striking coincidence that there should be two alarms sent in in the same day to the fire department at 7:40 o'clock, being just exactly 12 hours apart almost to a minute.

An Automobile Accident.

Mr. Arthur Hewlett yesterday afternoon while driving one of Mr. C. S. Burnett's automobiles, ran into Mr. J. W. Rowan at Front and Red Cross streets, causing him to receive several bruises about the legs. A bicycle by which Mr. Rowan was standing was also damaged slightly. Mr. Rowan was standing talking to a friend when Mr. Hewlett came in from Red Cross and failed to see him as he turned the corner. Mr. Rowan attempted to get out of the way, but was unable to do so before he was struck by the machine which Mr. Hewlett was driving.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

Held Yesterday at Pike Presbyterian Church, Near Ashton.

A Sunday School Institute was held yesterday at Pike Presbyterian church, near Ashton, in Pender County, which was largely attended by the people from all churches in that section. The meeting was called to order by Rev. W. M. Shaw, Sabbath School Missionary for the Wilmington Presbytery. Rev. Andred J. Howell, of this city, was elected chairman and Mr. W. A. Brown, a business man of that section, was chosen secretary.

Interesting addresses were made by the pastor of the church, Rev. P. L. Clark, and by Rev. W. M. Shaw, Rev. Andrew J. Howell and Messrs. J. H. Moore, of Burgaw; J. K. Cowan, Ashton, and J. E. Durham, Rocky Point. There were two sessions, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. A sumptuous dinner was spread on the grounds, and greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

The institute was entirely non-sectarian, and was attended by members of all the churches of that section, there being, 107 delegates in attendance from six Sunday schools alone. The addresses were all of a high order, and were heard with the greatest interest and profit by the splendid audience. It is likely that there will be several new Sunday schools established as a result of the meeting.

The pastor of the church, Rev. P. L. Clark, will continue to hold services at the church today and tomorrow.

WILL LIKELY SELL BONDS.

Full Issue of $275,000 Will Probably be Sold Monday Afternoon.

It is now probable that the full amount of the county's road and school bonds, aggregating $275,000, will be sold Monday afternoon at a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners to be called for the purpose of considering bids that have been made in response to advertisements which have been published for several weeks. Of the total amount of $275,000, the sum of $100,000 is for road improvements and $175,000 is for the public school system.

Chairman Willard said yesterday that a bid that looked favorable had been received. This firm offers to take over the entire amount at par and accrued interest. It is probable that other bids will be received but none will be considered that are below par.

The county owes about $55,000, and of this amount $20,000 is for a debt of the school board which is bearing interest at 6 per cent. If the bonds are sold this debt can be paid, and although the county will begin to pay interest on the bonds at the rate of 5 per cent. the balance after the county has made the first expenditures can be placed in the bank at 4 per cent. interest. It is estimated that the amount that the county will lose will be about $400.

Bible Lecture Tomorrow.

The International Bible Students' Association, with headquarters at Craven Terrace, London, is arranging to give series of Bible lectures the world over. Several tours have been arranged for evangelisis in America. One is listed to pass through this place, headed by Benj. H. Barton, of Philadelphia, who will speak on the subject: "Beyond the Grave," Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Grand Theatre.

Druggist J. Hicks Bunting Gives Reasons for Selling at Half Price

It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure, said Druggist J. Hicks Bunting to one of his many customers, but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

"The Dr. Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale authorzed me to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their specific for half price, 25 cents and although I have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

I am still selling the specific at half price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the specific does not cure them, they can come right back to my store and I will cheerfully refund their money.

NEGRO SHOT LAST NIGHT.

George Williams Suffered Slight Hip Wound from Pistol Bullet.

As a result of a dispute last night a few minutes after 10 o'clock, Willie Mack, colored, fired three shots at George Williams, also colored, one of which took effect in his right hip inflicting a slight flesh wound. Williams was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital for surgical attention but was able to return to his home soon afterwards. Willie Mack was walking with a woman named Mary Bishop, along Castle street, between Fifth and Sixth, when he met George Williams.

When they met the woman walked on and Williams states that he asked Mack who the woman was, and that he took out his pistol and shot him. Officers J. O. Bullard and S. H. Fulford hearing the pistol shots, came up at once but Mack had disappeared. Williams was sent to the hospital and the woman was arrested as a material witness. Later she was recognized for her appearance before the Recorder this morning.

A searching party composed of Sergeant Howell and Plainclothesmen B. W. Jacobs and Frank George began hunting for the other negro whose name they did not know until some of the negroes in that locality told them that it was Mack, and that he worked as a cook at the cafe at the Carolina Apartments, corner Fifth and Market streets. They telephoned Maj. W. N. Harriss, who lives there, asking him to find out if he was there.

Maj. Harriss immediately got in touch with the janitor of the building and soon located Mack in the basement. He held him until the officers could arrive and then turned him over to them. A pistol was found in the room occupied by Mack which he had attempted to hide. He was taken to the police station and locked up.

Two Women Arrested Last Night.

Gladys Utley, colored, was arrested last night by Constable Davis, on a charge of stealing two silver spoons from the residence of Mr. H. Beery Wilson, on Nun street. She was placed in jail and will have a hearing before Justice Harriss today. She had been working at the home as a servant, and a few days ago the spoons disappeared. Yesterday morning Constable Davis got a search warrant, and went to her home and found the spoons in ner trunk. Bertha Jones, colored, was also arrested last night by Constable Davis, on the strength of charges made by the Utley woman, who stated that she had seen her wearing a gold necklace which was stolen from the home of Mr. L. W. Moore a few days ago. The necklace has not been recovered.

COTTON MARKET STILL ACTIVE

Close Was Steady Net Unchanged to Four Points Lower—Sharp Breaks in Prices Were Recovered.

New York, Sept. 12.—The reactionary or more bearish sentiment noted in the cotton market during yesterday's trading was in evidence again early today, but a sharp break in prices was recovered and while the rally was not fully maintained, the close was steady net unchanged to four points lower.

Weak Liverpool cables more favorable crop reports and bearish European trade advices seemed responsible for the early selling and after opening barely steady at a decline of 12 to14 points, the market broke to a net loss of 20 to 22 points late in the morning. This doubtless reflected heavy liquidation and stop orders were uncovered on a scale down, while there was also considerable pressure from both local and Southern sources which was supposed to be for short account. Offerings tapered off, however, around 12.67 for December, or about $3 per bale under the high price of last Tuesday and the market steadied later on trade reports that too much rain was falling on open cotton in the Southwest and rumors that contracts sold earlier in the day had been absorbed by trade interests. There were also reports of a better spot demand from the South, and the market advanced almost as rapidly as it eased off, until December cotton sold at 12.92, or three points net higher and 25 points above the low level of the morning. Realizing caused some irregularity in the late trading, but the market closed within four or five points of the best. Advices from the Southwest concerning the effects of the continued rain were more or less conflicting and the forecast for colder weather was considered an unfavorable feature which may have contributed somewhat to the afternoon advance.

Spot cotton, quiet. Middling uplands, 13.15; do. gulf, 13.40; sales, 400 bales.

Futures closed steady.

THE WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Excitement and Activity Which Followed the September Crop Report Has Subsided Somewhat During Week.

New York, Sept. 12.—The intense excitement and activity which developed in the cotton market following the September crop report have subsided to some extent during the past week. General business has probably been restricted to a considerable extent by uncertainty as to the final action of Washington on the cotton futures tax, and fluctuations have been irregular with prices showing a tendency to ease off under realizing, or liquidation.

The extremely small views of the crop based on the last government condition figures have probably been modified to some extent by the favorable average of private crop advices from the Eastern belt and while some doubt is expressed as to the benefit of rains in the Southwest, the thorough breaking of the drouth is supposed to have at least checked deterioration in Texas and Oklahoma. In addition to this somewhat less pessimistic view of the crop, selling has doubtless been encouraged by unfavorable trade advices from abroad, which have naturally rendered a ready absorption of early new crop receipts more doubtful at advancing prices, and the heavy ginning returns up to September 1st were regarded as pointing to a heavy movement during August.

Reports have heached here that South German weavers are to curtail their production 20 per cent for three months, beginning with the first of next January, while several cables have been received from Liverpool claiming that trade in Manchester was slacking, with these reports colored to some extent by reports from New Orleans of a poor demand for ocean freight. Many of the opinions heard in local circles, however, have reflected a reactionary rather than an ultimate bearish view of the situation and at today's decline of $3.40 from the high records of last week there was an active demand, much of which was attributed to trade interests. Spinners are still said to be heavily short against their respective needs and bullishly disposed traders predict an active trade buying in the event of further declines, while they also predict that unusual nervousness will develop with the approach of the frost period.

WEEKLY EXCHANGE STATEMENT

Secretary Hester's Review Shows Increase in Cotton in Sight.

New Orleans, Sept. 12.—Secretary Hester's weekly New Orleans cotton exchange statement issued before the close of business today shows an increase in the movement into sight for the past seven days of 56,000 over the seven days ending September 12th last year.

The amount brought into sight for the week ending this afternoon is stated at 296,328 against 240,418 for the seven days ending this date last year. This brings the total crop moved into sight for the 12 days of the new season to 454,851 against 375,600 last year. The movement since September 1st shows receipts at all United States ports 327,044 against 261,658 last year; interior stocks in excess of September 1st 43,278 against 41,035 last year; Southern mill takings 80,000 against 69,282 last year.

Foreign exports of cotton since September 1st have been 229,401 against 128,081 last year; the total takings of American mills, North, South and Canada thus far for the season have been 132,952 against 105,672.

Since the close of the commercial year stocks at American ports and the 29 leading Southern interior centers have increased 101,498 against an increase for the same period last season of 141,847 and are now 78,645 smaller than at this date last year.

Including stocks left over at ports and interior towns from the last crop and the number of bales brought into sight thus far for the new crop the supply to date is 781,268 against 740,313 for the same period last year.

WHY PAY 'PHONE IN ADVANCE?

J. Ed Albright, of Greensboro, Vows He Won't and They Cut Him Off.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 12.—J. Ed Albright, a local master plumber and ex-alderman, is without telephone service because he refuses to pay in advance. The company has cut off his service.

He has retaliated by forbidding the company to take his telephones out of his home and office and has called upon the city commissioners to make an investigation of the manner of business of the company. He says there is no reason for paying telephone rent in advance and if he can receive sufficient encouragement he will fight the matter to a finish. There will probably be others who will join him in a fight for better service, which he says is at present so very poor.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Sept. 12.—Cotton goods markets rule steady at the high prices range reached. Wool markets are quiet in domestic divisions but foreign wools are firm and active. Silks piece goods and ribbons are selling steadily for Spring.

Sets of Furs, Ladies' Coat Suits; Men's suits, watches, fine dolls, beautiful lamps, etc., given free tomorrow (Saturday). Gaylord-Platt Co.—Advertisement.

UPTURN IN STOCK MARKET

Advance More Impressive Because There Was no Bullish News—Union Pacific Advanced Over Five Points.

New York, Sept. 12.—Union Pacific outstripped its recent movements today by rising over five points. The price came within a shade of 160, showing a gain of 10 1-2 points since rumors of a cash distribution to stockholders gained currency, and the upturn began.

The day's advance was rendered more impressive by the fact that there was no bullish news on which to base it. Bears who sold on recent developments had built up a considerable short interest. With the market thus in a strong technical position, it required nothing more than the impulse supplied by the buoyant rise in Union Pacific to start the whole list upward.

The coppers, whose recent advance in sympathy with the strength of the metal market has been interrupted in the last few days, resumed their upward movement. Canadian Pacific, benefitted by glowing reports of the Dominion's crop, was strong.

Forecasts of tomorrow's bank statement were conflicting. They indicated that the week's movement of currency had not been important in net results, and that either a small gain or a small loss would be shown.

Bonds showed an improving tendency. Total sales par value $1,935,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales were 545,700 including: Amalgamated Copper, 36,600; American Tobacco, 100; A. C. L., 400; C. & O., 2,000; Lehigh Valley, 4,100; L. & N., 800; N. & W., 100; Reading, 63,800; S. A. BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

Events of Past Week Forecast Favorable Progress.

New York, Sept. 12.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

The events of the week spell progress along generally favorable lines. Chief features were the expansion in Fall jobbing trade, breaking of the drouth in the corn belt too late to enlarge the yield but checking further deterioration; the ending of the tariff uncertainty by the passage of that bill in the Senate; the realization through the government report of a record yield of wheat and of average yields of most other crops except corn, lower temperatures stimulating detail trade and enlarged movements of cotton and Spring wheat. Enlargement of jobbing trade is reported from all leading markets.

Business failures for the week were 258, against 234 in the like week of 1912.

Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week aggregate 4,473,352 bushels, against 4,161,621 last year.

vices be held until the return of the body to New York.

A majority of the passengers on the Baltic were not aware that they had such a fellow voyager as Mayor Gaynor until the news of his death became public. The Mayor's wish to rest, and to keep to himself was respected alike by officers of the vessel and passangers, who recognized him. To the few with whom Mr. Gaynor talked, he did not discuss politics.

The lead of the Lord-Mayor of Liverpool in doing exceptional honors to Mayor Gaynor has been followed generally throughout Liverpool. Flags on the town hall and other public building and other private buildings were lowered to half mast today.

The Cunard Line tonight detailed the superintendent of the port, Captain Dodd, to take charge of the reception of the body of Mayor Gaynor on board the Lusitania tomorrow.

Rufus Gaynor and the nurse who accompanied Mayor Gaynor will return to New York with the body.

Funeral Arrangements.

New York, Sept. 12.—While all New York mourned today for William Jay Gaynor, tentative arrangements were being made for the public obsequies planned to constitute the final and striking tribute of his home city to the memory of its late executive head.

Mayor Gaynor's funeral will take place in Old Trinity church in lower Broadway at 11 A. M., Monday, September 22nd, with Bishop Greer, of the New York diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, officiating. His body will be buried in Greenwood cemetery in Brooklyn.

The ceremonies on the day of the funeral are to be preceded by distinctive tributes to the dead executive. On the arrival, probably next Friday forenoon, of the steamer Lusitania, the Mayor's body will be taken to the Gaynor home in Brooklyn, there to remain until Saturday evening, when it will be removed to the city hall in Manhattan to lie in state until the hour of the funeral on Monday.

The coffin will be borne from the city hall to the hearse, and from the hearse to the church on the shoulders of uniformed men of the fire and police departments.

The arrangements for the funeral will be submitted to Mrs. Gaynor at St. James' tomorrow for her approval.

Meeting of various bodies at which resolutions of regret at the Mayor's death and tribute to his career as man and official were adopted, marked the day. Messages of condolence continued to pour into his family at St. James' and to Mayor Kline at the city hall.

The Mayor, who actively entered upon his new duties today, reiterated his disclaimer of any intention to make any radical changes in the personnel of the city's officials, over whom he has the power of appointment and removal.

That Mayor Gaynor's family will be found to be well provided for when his will comes to be probated seems the general belief. Friends of the family and individuals in a position to know more or less accurately the extent of the Mayor's holdings of real estate and securities today variously estimated the value of his estate at $500,000 to $3,000,000 with the concensus of opinion favoring a sum not more than half the larger figure. Mayor Gaynor had a large and lucrative law practice before he went on the bench and had realized much in fees from important trusteeships and from wise investments.

The striking event of the day in connection with the political complications which have arisen through the death of Mayor Gaynor who was an independent candidate for re-election, came when the Gaynor campaign managers designated George McAneny, fusion candidate for president of the board of aldermen, as their candidate for Mayor to take the vacant place on the ticket. Mr. McAneny, however, promptly declined the honor, declaring he would not accept any nomination in opposition to John Purroy Mitchel, fusion nominee.

Tonight there existed the impression that the Gaynor managers would persist in their plan of putting an independent ticket in the field. William R. Wilcox, former chairman of the Public Service Commission, was mentioned as another man whom the Gaynor leaders had urged to accept a place on the independent ticket.

BURLESON CONSIDERING PLAN.

To Abandon Practice of Forwarding Magazines by Fast Freight.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Postmaster General Burleson has under consideration the abandonment of the present practice of forwarding magazines by fast freight.

Under a decision of the comptroller of the Treasury, he has authority to return to the former method of handling periodical publication by mail trains. The Postmaster General said today he had reached no conclusion and had no idea when a definite determination of the question might be reached.

"BLACK BOOK" A FAKE.

Was Supposed to Contain Evidence of Chinese and Opium Traffic.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Chicago police reports that a so-called "black book" containing evidence of Chinese and opium smuggling and of traffic in White Slaves had been seized in a Chinese restaurant in that city were denounced today by the bureau of immigration as the "purest fabrication."

Commissioner General Caminetti directed that the reports be investigated, and today he received a report from Inspector Edward D. Ebey, at Chicago, saying the book referred to contained nothing in way of evidence and aparently was only an address book.

VICTIMS' BODIES SHIPPED.

Remains of Two Men Killed in Explosion on Craven Sent Home.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 12.—The torpedo boat Craven left Savannah today for Charleston in tow of the United States revenue tub Uncas. The bodies of McCaffrey and Milton, the two men killed in the explosion on the Craven, were shipped tonight, McCaffrey's body being sent to a cousin in New York and that of Milton to his wife in Charleston.

But little hope is held out for the recovery of Fireman Thomas Gabbert and Watertender James C. Dalton.

MILK BY PARCEL POST.

Department Not Prepared to Handle It in Ordinary Cans.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Many inquiries have been received by Postmaster General Burleson as to whether milk may be forwarded by parcel post. He announced today that the department was not prepared to handle milk in ordinary cans, but hopes to be some day. Milk or any other liquid at present may be forwarded by post only in metal containers, sealed against leakage, and the containers securely inclosed in wrapped packages or boxes.

DISCUSS MONEY BILL.

Discussion in the House Marked by Vigorous Republican Attacks.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Progress of the currency bill through the debating stage in the House today was marked by vigorous Republican attacks upon the way the measure was prepared by the majority, and by a defense from Representative Harwick, of Georgia, who, though he declared the bill far from perfect and pointed out what he considered its defects, announced that in spite of all its faults he expected to abide by the judgment of his party and vote for its passage.

Speech-making continued throughout the day and into a night session with most of the orators addressing a handful of members.

Representative Neely, of Kansas, a Democratic member of the Banking and Currency committee, endorsed the bill, but criticised the secret meetings which framed it, and the secret caucus which perfected it.

A bitter attack upon the measure, and particularly upon the manner in which it was framed and considered by the Democrats, was made by Representative Burke, of Pennsylvania, a Republican member of the committee. He declared the bill, if it became a law, "would be as useful to the country as a dollar to a dead man."

BETTER BABIES' CONTEST.

Guilford County to Have An Exhibition of Young Americans.

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 12.—The committee in charge of registration for the "Better Babies' Contest" to be held in connection with the Central Carolina fair here this Fall, report more than 350 registrations in Greensboro and the suburban nill village.

There will be many others from the county, and the city of High Point, and the number in the preliminary examination may reach anywhere from 500 to 1,000. This number will be greatly reduced, by selection and elimination, so that a moderate number will be placed on exhibit at the fair.

These will be divided into two classes. The first will be the babies from one to two years of age, and the second those from two to three years of age. Prizes will be offered in both grades and a competent committee will serve as judges at the fair. Mothers are taking great interest in the contest, which is evidenced by the number of babies enrolled.

CHINA COMPLIES WITH DEMANDS

Arising From the Killing of Three Japanese at Nanking.

Peking, China, Sept. 12.—Orders issued today by Provisional President Yuan Shi Kai signify, it is believed, that China has complied with the demands of the Japanese government, presented yesterday.

The Japanese demands arose from the killing or three Japanese at Nanking, the maltreatment of a consular messenger, the torture of a Japanese lieutenant at Hankow, and the imprisonment for two days of a Japanese lieutenant at Shan Tung. Japan demanded an apology for the insults to the Japanese flag, the punishment of those responsible, and the payment of an indemnity.

In the clash between Japanese and Chinese soldiers yesterday, at Chang Ti, near Shan-Hai-Kwan, where the Japanese guard a section of the railway from Peking to the sea, one of the Japanese soldiers was killed. The Chinese officer later sent an apology to the Japanese commander.

MEXICAN WOMAN ARRESTED.

Seized at Port of New York and Held on Embezzlement Charge.

New York, Sept. 12.—Alice Maud Muller Sanchez, of Mexico City, a comely woman about 30 years old, was arrested in Brooklyn by special agents of the United States Department of Justice as she stepped from the gang plank of the steamer Esperanza, which arrived tonight from Mexican ports. She is charged with embezzlement by the Mexican government, which for months has been looking for her, according to the officials who made the arrest. The young woman was booked on the steamer as "Ida Munger" and denied that she is Senora Sanchez. The embezzlement with which she is charged was committed in Mexico City, but the nature of it is not known.

Senora Sanchez had with her seven trunks. She was born in the United States but has lived in Mexico 17 years. She is being held for hearing before a United States commissioner.

MURDERER APPREHENDED.

Under Indictment for Killing Committed a Year Ago.

Blueridge, Ga., Sept. 12.—John Wright, under indictment for the murder of Moultry Hughes near here a year ago, was apprehended late yesterday in the hills north of Blueridge, according to advices received here today. Wright, together with Frank Rudicill, was indicted shortly after Hughes was shot to death at his home by unknown assassins. Rudicill has never been captured.

Hughes' murder has generally been attributed to his alleged activity against a band of illicit distillers who are said to have operated near his home.

NO ARRESTS MADE YET

In Connection With Big Robbery on Atlantic Coast Line.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 12.—Despite assertions today by express officials that the identity of the thief who stole $71,900 in currency from a portable safe en route from New York to Savannah was known, there had been no arrests made up to a late hour tonight. Neither had any of the money been recovered.

General Manager J. B. Hockaday, of the Southern Express Company, which had charge of the currency shipment, said tonight that he would remain here until the mystery is solved.

MISS WILSON STARS.

Plays in a Masque Symbolizing Protest Against Bird Slaughter.

Meriden, N. H., ept. 12.—President Wilson sat in a grove of pine trees tonight and saw his youngest daughter, Miss Eleanor, play the star role in a pastoral masque symbolizing the protest of the naturalist against the slaughter of birds for millinery purposes.

With a dramatic skill which surprised her closest friends, as it was her first attempt, Miss Wilson voiced in soft and appealing tones the spirit of the bird lover exhorting the hunter to forsake his rifle.

—At Front and Orange streets last night, When Officer Jordan arrested a negro named Roy Bowman for being drunk, another negro interfered, and attempted to wrest the officer's capture from him. Failing, he threw a rock at the policeman, hitting lightly on his helmet, and then ran away. Turning his prisoner, Bowman, over to some citizens, the officer gave chase, but the buttinsky outran him.

DISLIKE W. B. & S. SCHEDULE.

Southport People Complain Because of New Service—Mullet Fishing.

Southport, N. C., Sept. 12.—The proposed change of schedule by the W. B. & S. railroad, in the departure of its morning train from here, meets general local disapproval, if not harsh criticism, as the change means so many disadvantages to travel, mail, and express business.

As a local resident said to The Star's correspondent, the following are the main points that operate by the change against this place—there will be no mail or passenger connection North or West, as at present, instead, there will be a loss of six to 12 hours. There can be no express shipments of fish by rail. Those who want t ogo to Wilmington on a day's business lose about two hours. It is a blow at every interest here that the railroad could serve, and while the railroad people must suffer financially, this gives no satisfaction to this community.

Last Wednesday night as the motor boat Orlando was towing the barge Willis down the river, the former ran into the anchor scow of dredge No. 19, and sank. Both boats belonged to A. J. Robbins of this city. Mr. Robbins was on the Orlando and had a narrow escape, as the boat sank at once after the collision.

The dock here, best known os the Pilots' dock, is undergoing some needed repairs. C. F. Drew has the contract for the repair work.

There were 110 newly recruited men bound for Fort Caswell, here Thursday, on their way to take their places in Uncle Sam's service. These recruits came to make up the complement of the regiments which have had their ranks depleted by men having completed their term of service.

The United States buoy tender Cypress arrived here last Monday morning having on board the baseball team from Fort Moultrie, Charleston. This team came for a series of games with the Fort Caswell boys, playing four games and winning three of them. There was a good deal of interest in the games, both at the Fort and at Southport, the local fans attending in crowds.

Emma, James and Butler, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thompson, who have been spending the Summer here, at the home of their parents, left on Wednesday for Edgefield, S. C., to resume their school studies. Miss Mary Butler, sister of Mrs. Thompson, who has been a visitor here for some weeks, returned to Edgefield on Wednesday.

Capt. Geo. M. Crapon and Mrs. Crapon, formerly of this place, but now living in Newbern, are here visiting relatives.

Chaplain Springer, of the Fort, has returned from a visit in the mountains of Pennsylvania, where he has been with Mrs. Springer and his daughter and son. Mrs. Springer will be absent several weeks longer.

At the Pavilion Thursday night an entertainment was given by local talent under the direction of the Civic Club, the proceeds going to the public library. A good sized audience greatly enjoyed the programme.

The mullet run, which continued from last week over last Sunday, was interrupted for a couple of days by the stiff northeasterly winds, returned again Friday. The quantities of this fish has proven a gold mine to those going after them, as there has been a good market, which means a good price, as every "set" meant a big haul.

One instance of taking money out of the sea, via the fish route, is told of a young man here, who having a note of $65 to meet, went out in his boat and returned in a few hours with enough of mullets which he sold for cash to pay his note.

Along with the mullets come the sharks, and the sight of these in pursuit, causing the mullets to spring out of the water, is one worth seeing, as there are thousands of mullets in sight, literally flying along above the surface of the water, almost as far as the eye can see. Parties fishing with hook and line complain of not being able to keep any bait, as the sharks snap up anything that presents itself. A number of sharks have been caught both in the harbor and outside.

DIGGS-HARRIS TRIAL.

Both Defendants in Case Take Stand in Their Own Behalf.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—Both Maury I. Diggs, former State architect, and Attorney Charles B. Harris, of Sacramento, jointly accused of subornation of perjury in connection with the Diggs-Caminetti white slave case, took the witness stand in their own behalf today. Both denied that salient points in the testimony of Nellie Barton, who swore she was induced to act as a go-between bearing instructions to Marsha Warrington as to the story the latter should tell to help Diggs escape conviction for violation of the Mann Act. They admitted that Miss Barton had been summoned to a conference with them and that she had been the bearer of a message to Miss Warrington, but stoutly declared that nothing savoring of subornation of perjury entered into the preservation of the message.

Counsel for both sides announced that the case would go to the jury by next Tuesday night. A tentative agreement was reached with the court that the sentencing of Diggs and Drew Caminetti on the white slavery charges, on which they stand convicted, would be postponed until the jury had reached a verdict in the present case.

RESENT ATTACKS ON CATHOLICS

Militia Called at New Lexington, O., to Prevent Violence.

New Lexington, O., Sept. 12.—Mayor Gue called out the local company of the Ohio National Guard tonight to prevent a threatened assault on Jeremiah Crowley by citizens who were incensed over attacks made on the Catholic church by Crowley in speeches delivered Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Crowley, who is being held at police headquarters under guard claims that he is a former priest and said that his home is in Pennsylvania. Crowds which collected on the streets today became so threatening that Mayor Gue telegraphed Governor Cox for troops. Receiving no reply the mayor called out the local troops and ordered all places of business closed.

The subject of Crowley's speeches was "Romanism". He called his discourse an exposure of the Catholic church.

ARGUMENTS CONCLUDED.

In Trial of Mrs. Perkins, Held on Charge of Murder.

Millen, Ga., Sept. 12.—Arguments in the trial of Mrs. Edna Perkins-Godbee for the murder of Mrs. Florence Godbee, wife of her divorced husband, ended late today. Judge Hammond delivered the charge and the case went to the jury. Shortly after 10 o'clock tonight it was ordered to check up, thus precluding the possibility of a verdict before tomorrow.

Washington, Sept. 12.—According to an announcement from the State Department, $52,788.29 has been spent since the first of the year in aiding American citizens to get out of Mexico.
